EAST BERLIN, May 7—East Germany will publish a "Who's Who in the CIA" this month listing 3500 members of American Civil and Military intelligence agencies in 120 countries, according to an advertisement in an East German magazine. ✓

It calls the 600-page book "a biographical reference work" on the Central Intelligence Agency.

A German edition is to be published in May and an English version in June, according to the advertisement in the G.D.R. Review—a magazine for circulation abroad available here today.
