

APR 12 1966

Green Berets

Very Interesting People

By Maxine Cheshire

Big John Wayne was in town last week to confer with State Department and Defense Department officials about his upcoming movie based on "The Green Berets". He also talked with USIA Director Leonard Marks about a project for using more Hollywood talent to propagandize abroad . . . Dialogue at Dinner: The only American to get caught trying to smuggle antiquities out of Cambodia in the past decade was the teen-age son of a high-ranking U.S. official. To keep the boy from having to serve six months in jail, the father "paid a fine" . . . he bought two new tractors and swapped them for his son.