

MOVIE ©
9:00 (4) (3) (1) (2)

8 March 1971

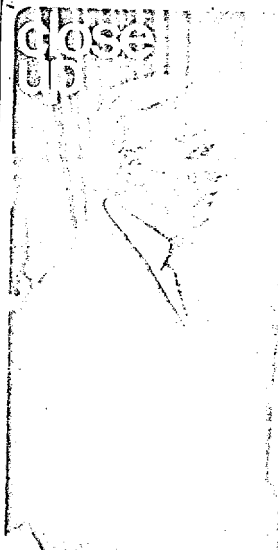

PART 1: VANISHED

An impressive cast and Fletcher Knobel's 1968 best-selling story are the ingredients for this four-hour TV movie. (To be concluded tomorrow, same time and channels.)

The President's top adviser has disappeared. Press Secretary Gene Culligan is completely in the dark—along with the FBI and CIA—but one thing is clear: the President knows more than he is willing to disclose.

Cameos by newsmen Chet Huntley, Herbert Kaplow and Martin Agronsky. Directed by Buzz Kulik; screenplay by Dean Riesner.

Cast . . . President Roudebush: Richard Widmark. Culligan: James Farentino. Ingram: E.G. Marshall. Senator Gannon: Robert Young. Greer: Arthur Hill. Sue Greer: Eleanor Parker. Jill: Skye Aubrey. Storm: Robert Hooks. Paulick: William Shatner. McCann: Murray Hamilton. Freytag: Larry Hagman. Cavanaugh: Tom Bosley. General Palfrey: Stephen McNally. Beverly: Sheree North. Loomis: Robert Lipton. Captain Cooledge: Jim Davis. Descowicz: Michael Strong. Gretchen Greer: Christine Belford. Grace: Catherine McLeod. (2 hrs.)

Richard Widmark