MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: ? [Address of] The Heritage Foundation

1. Action Requested: None. This is background information for your address at a dinner discussion meeting on Tuesday, 6 May, from 6:30 - 9:00 p.m. in the Shelby Cullom Davis Policy Center on the 7th floor at The Heritage Foundation's offices, 214 Massachusetts Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C. Phone: 546-4400.

2. Arrangements: You will be meeting at 6:30 p.m. with approximately 18 members of The Heritage Foundation and their guests for an off-the-record dinner discussion. Dr. Edwin J. Feulner, President of The Heritage Foundation, will meet you at the main entrance and escort you to the Shelby Cullom Davis Policy Center on the 7th floor for wine and cheese. (For further information see biography opposite.) Dinner will follow at 7:00 p.m. (See list of attendees opposite.) You will be seated in the middle of the table and Dr. Feulner will be seated on your left and The Honorable Clare Boothe Luce on your right. At approximately 8:00 p.m. the program will begin and Dr. Feulner will introduce you. The suggested format is 15 minutes of remarks followed by 45 minutes of questions and answers. Adjournment will be at 9:00 p.m. The press will not be present with the exception of James Hackett, Editor of The National Security Record. All attendees are U.S. citizens. A business suit is the dress for the occasion.

The Heritage Foundation is a public policy research institute dedicated to the principles of free competitive enterprise, limited government, individual liberty, and a strong national defense. The press categorizes The Heritage Foundation as a "conservative Washington think-tank." (For recent press coverage see opposite.) The Foundation publishes research in various formats for the benefit of decisionmakers and the interested public. Seminars and conferences on public policy issues are also conducted by the Foundation. Recently, on CBS News it was announced that the Abu Nidal has targeted The Heritage Foundation.
