

Sent to Judge Clark via LDX
27 April 1983

Statement by now deceased Salvadoran guerrilla leader Cayetano Carpio in Managua on 9 April 1983 on the occasion of the funeral of Melida Anaya Montes. Statement was made in Managua:

"The Central American people's struggle is one single struggle."
Carpio also vowed that after the guerrilla triumphed in El Salvador, "El Salvador and Nicaragua would be arm-in-arm and struggling for the total liberation of Central America."

(Source: The Washington Post, 22 Apr 83)