Dear Bill:

I've read your Worldwide Briefing to the Senate Armed Services Committee, House Armed Services Committee, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, and House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee on January 29 - January 30, February 4, and prospectively, February 18, 1986 with great interest. I was equally interested in Robert Gates' full and perceptive analysis of the relationship between the CIA and universities.

I've asked Debbie Geer to send me two extra copies of each. I want to read them again; and I want to bring the Gates' lecture to the attention of some other individuals.

All my best.

Yours,

Milton Katz
