Dear Captain David Wilbourne:

The staff of the Personal Security Branch (PSB) of the Office of Training and Education (OTE) would like to express their appreciation for the excellent training recently provided by Command Master Chief Petty Officer Gary Gallagher. His level of expertise and professionalism is of the highest caliber, and his contribution revolutionized the self-defense portion of the Personal Security Course. We hope that if a need arises that we can draw upon his services in the future.

Sincerely,

Deputy Director
of Training and Education
