MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: David D. Whipple [redacted] 25X1
National Intelligence Officer for Counterterrorism

SUBJECT: Request for Approval to Discuss Aspects of Terrorism with a
Cleared Consultant [redacted] 25X1

1. [redacted] a former military intelligence officer, who is now employed by [redacted] Corporation in Chevy Chase, Maryland. He is a consultant doing classified contract work (NFI) for the Pentagon. He is presently also on contract with Nestle's Coordination Center for Nutrition, which is an American subsidiary or branch of Nestle which is headquartered in Vevey, Switzerland, to produce a study on terrorism which focuses on the likelihood of terrorists poisoning Nestle products. [redacted] 25X1

2. [redacted] has asked me to help him by giving him unclassified background data on terrorism in general, plus my own judgments as to whether terrorists are likely to include poisoning as part of their modus operandi. [redacted] came to know of me when I was a member of a panel discussing various aspects of terrorism at the Tenth Annual Former Intelligence Officers Association Convention on 20 October 1984. [redacted] attended the convention and heard me speak. [redacted] phoned me at my office to ask for my help, and I agreed to meet with him at 1400 hours on 3 December in my office. [redacted] 25X1

3. [redacted] offered to arrange for the Pentagon to pass his Top Secret clearance to my office, which was subsequently done. His clearance was granted on 5 August 1983. [redacted] 25X1

4. If asked by [redacted] I propose to show and discuss with him general statistical data on terrorism worldwide which I have on hand in unclassified RAND Studies. I also propose, if asked, to provide my own rationale on why I think terrorists as such are not likely to use poisons to attack large food producing corporations. My rationale was set forth in a recent Threat Outlook paper for the DCI, which is attached. [redacted]
