Office of the Chairman

3/19/87

Jim -

See DD/ICS comment on attached. I have purposely held this tight so none of the staff has seen it.

I find Bill's comment somewhat obstructive; one can read much into it.

Albeit, the document does offer some PR, however, it also points out some of our shortfalls. It is worthy

Office of the Chairman

more than a record of what the committee has undertaken, and its success failures. It was not specifically designed to be PR but to be a historical record.

I might add that the ICS produces something similar for the DCI to forward for the Congress!

Are we wasting our time
trying to produce
anything with a CIA connection.

Office of the Chairman

Every document produced has a purpose! It is unfortunate that this one was not seen has a positive one. I remind all concerned that the DCI & D/ICS have had to describe and the function & mission of the CIPE to the Congress & other on many occasions. <sup>(This document could be a help for them.)</sup> It could have just as easily been handed to the new DCI rather than create a new package for him.

Office of the Chairman

This is just a rambling way of saying that if Bill sees the report as purely PR
than I missed the boat!
I wanted it to be more!

u
P.S. The staff is now aware of the comment and are very disappointed, to say the least.
