2. In an effort to present the recommended critical intelligence needs in a comprehensive manner, we have displayed them in two different forms. At Attachment A is a summarized listing of the recommendations by agency. Attachment B, however, consolidates the proposed critical intelligence needs on a target/topic basis. [redacted]

The primary objective will be to identify and prioritize the most significant critical intelligence needs, and provide the DCI with specific recommendations for addressing them. Additionally, we should consider alternative methods for addressing those recommendations that are considered not germane for CIPC consideration, i.e., defer certain recommendations to other organizations or committees for action.
