Bill,

[redacted] addressed this to the D/OCA because of the language contained in the letter and not because Bob Gates directed it. I have told Diane that I am sending this to you because of the Scattergood-Thorne Committee that you established to come up with recommendations for use of the Scattergood-Thorne property. For your information, Bob Gates has not seen the attached and we defer to you as to how you intend to handle the attached package.

Acting Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Subject: The Scattergood Property

Dear Mr. Gates:

Enclosed please find, for your information, background data on the National Historical Intelligence Museum. Included are a copy of the Senate Hearing supporting the establishment of the Museum and various materials that are part of the fund-raising project. The written presentation, as you will note, is intended for the average American benefactor and not for the intelligence professional.

We have heard from  and others that the Agency is considering various alternatives on what use to make of the Scattergood property. We are currently looking for a suitable site and we would be interested in working out an arrangement with the Agency for our use of a relatively small section of the Scattergood property. The Museum's Board of Directors and its Advisory Council have a large number of Agency alumni including Dick Helms, Bill Colby, Lyman Kirkpatrick, Larry Houston, Ray Cline and many others.

The Museum would describe the nation's past intelligence activities, highlighting the work of the various services (OSS/CIA, DIA, FBI, NSA, ONI, MI, etc.), also tracing the history of American intelligence from Washington's valiant efforts to recent times, security permitting. We feel confident you will agree that there is need now, more than ever, to put the vital role of intelligence work in the proper perspective for the American people and the media.

Please give our request your serious consideration.

Sincerely,

Walter T. Cini

Executive Director
