MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
 Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the Chicago Committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline an invitation to address the members of the Chicago Committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations luncheon meeting at the Chicago Club in Chicago on a mutually convenient date. The program year runs from September through June.

2. Background: Mr. James F. Beré, Chairman and CEO of the Borg-Warner Corporation and Chairman of the Chicago Committee, has invited you to speak to their membership on important issues in international affairs. The suggested format is 30 minutes of remarks followed by 20 minutes of Questions and Answers. According to Mr. Beré, all sessions are "off-the-record." You could expect an audience of 40 - 50 influential business, financial, academic, and other professional leaders from Chicago and the surrounding region. Although a publisher could be present, there will be neither working members of the press nor foreign nationals in the audience.

The Chicago Committee's membership of approximately 570 is made up of senior business and professional leaders from the Chicago area who are concerned with problems confronting the United States. The Committee meets regularly to hear distinguished US and foreign leaders as well as leading personalities in business, the press, and academic circles discuss vital issues affecting international relations and foreign policies. Recent speakers have been Abba Eban, Ted Turner, Senator Richard C. Lugar, Senator David Durenberger, Ambassador of South Africa to the US Herbert Buekes, Chinese Finance Minister Wang Bingqian, Chairman of Fiat Gianni Agnelli, and Assistant Secretary for European and Canadian Affairs Rozanne L. Ridgway. (See brochure opposite for further information including membership list.) John McMahon spoke to this group in April 1983.

The Committee is sponsored by the broader based Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, a non-partisan organization founded in 1922 that has a membership of approximately 15,000. The mission of the Council is to inform area citizens of significant international issues and their bearing on American foreign policy in the area through addresses by leading statesmen, discussion groups, and other activities. Research activities are sponsored in foreign policy, international relations, including studies on arms control and international security, international economics, diplomacy between countries, and major political developments within countries.

3. Recommendation: None. If you plan to be in the Chicago area sometime in the next year, you may wish to schedule a meeting with this influential group. Indicate your preference below and Public Affairs will make the appropriate response.

Mr. Robert Gates
Acting Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Gates:

On behalf of the Chicago Committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, I would like to invite you to appear as a featured speaker with the Committee during this coming year. It would be our pleasure and honor to host you.

The Chicago Committee is composed of the most senior and influential business, financial, academic and other professional leaders from Chicago and the surrounding region. The Committee meets regularly with the most prominent national and international figures to discuss important issues in international affairs. The enclosed directory provides a sampling of recent speakers for the Chicago Committee and a list of the current membership.

Our program features luncheon meetings, although we do have occasional breakfast and dinner gatherings as well. Our speakers normally address the group for thirty minutes and then respond to questions from the members. All sessions are strictly off-the-record, allowing guests to speak with absolute candor.

We do hope you are able to accept this invitation in principle. Our staff will then contact your office in detail to arrange a mutually convenient date and other particulars.

It would be an honor and a pleasure to include you in our program. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

James F. Beré
