Mr. Gates has accepted the PECSEA remarks/luncheon invitation. OSWR/TTAC called Rosemary Mazon and accepted the invitation. OSWR/TTAC has been tasked to prepare the speech -- I asked that they get it to us by the 14th.

Would you call Rosemary Mazon (I was told by TTAC she is the executive secretary for the commission -- shouldn't have written on her "Allied-Signal" stationery) and verify all the details as you usually do. I believe she wants a bio on Bob.

Another POC seems to be a Sharon Ganguier of Commerce (377-3856).

I told TTAC that you would be taking this over.

Would you mind sorting out.

Thanks

NOTE TO: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Proposed DDCI informal remarks before PECSEA Luncheon

1. The attached is an invitation to you from the President's Export Council Subcommittee on Export Administration. You might recall that they had inquired about your possible appearance in August, but you were on leave.

2. I recommend you accept if your calendar is free. They have been sent copies of your recent speech on this issue and I have briefed them on our Methodology. It would be a chance for CIA to place a marker on this issue for the next administration. PECSEA is drafting a transition book on export controls.

3. The standard format would be lunch, followed by 15-20 minutes of informal off-the-record comments by you, and a few questions. The Commerce Secretary usually attends; Under Secretary Freedenberg will almost certainly be there. We could supply talking points or a full speech.

Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Your very capable secretary provided the information for delivery of this letter and also the advice on how I might get it to you quickly. I understand you are not in the office today so am taking this approach to have this request in your hands as soon as possible.

Art Hausman would appreciate your assistance in arranging for Deputy Director Robert M. Gates to be invited to speak at the next meeting of the PECSEA (President's Export Council Subcommittee on Export Administration) which will be held at Commerce on October 20. I know you are familiar with the Subcommittee's work and, since you have been a guest speaker at the meetings, you are aware of the usual scheduling of the session.

If you find that Director Gates might be available to speak informally during the luncheon in the Secretary's Dining Room (12 noon to 1:30) Mr. Hausman would be most appreciative if you will be his "go-between" in inviting Mr. Gates. Art will also follow-up formally by letter to the Deputy Director on your advice that he can accept the invitation.

I would be grateful if your office will reply to me on Mr. Gates availability at your earliest convenience. You are, of course, invited to attend the meeting, or as much of it as you care to, and to be Mr. Hausman's guest at lunch.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Rosemary A. Mazon".

Miss Rosemary A. Mazon
