So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the concurrent resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

REMOVAL OF NAME OF MEMBER AS COSPONSOR OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 158

Mr. DORNAN of California. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my name be removed as a cosponsor of House Concurrent Resolution 158.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. DEFazio). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the clerk of the House of Representatives:

WASHINGTON, DC,
October 15, 1987.

Hon. JIM WRIGHT,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: This is to notify you, pursuant to Rule L(50) of the Rules of the House of Representatives, that I have been served with subpoenas issued by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. After consultation with my General Counsel, I will notify you of my determinations as required by the House Rule.

With great respect, I am,

Sincerely yours,

DONALD K. ANDERSON,
Clerk, House of Representatives.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES ON H.R. 1777, FOREIGN RELATIONS AUTHORIZATION ACT, FISCAL YEARS 1988 AND 1989

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the bill (H.R. 1777) to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1988 and 1989 for the Department of State, the U.S. Information Agency, the Voice of America, the Board for International Broadcasting, and for other purposes, with a Senate amendment thereto, disagree to the Senate amendment, and agree to the conference asked by the Senate.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

MOTION TO INSTRUCT OFFERED BY MR. BURTON OF INDIANA

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion to instruct.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. BURTON of Indiana moves that the managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the Senate amendment to the bill (H.R. 1777) to authorize appropriations for fiscal years 1988 and 1989 for the Department of State, the United States Information Agency, the Board for International Broadcasting, and for other purposes, be instructed to agree to the provisions contained in title XI of the Senate amendment (entitled "Anti-Terrorism Act of 1987").

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. BURTON] is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, for purposes of debate only, I yield 30 minutes to the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MICA].

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, let me say that we have no objection to this. We would be happy to accept the instruction.

Mr. BURTON of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, since the motion has been accepted, I will simply submit my formal statement.

Mr. Speaker, my motion would instruct House conferees to agree to an amendment that has broad bipartisan support in both Houses of Congress and passed by voice vote in the Senate.

Though I am confident that this provision would be retained in conference given its broad support, I believe that it is important that the whole House be on record in support of closing the official offices of the PLO in the United States.

The PLO is the world's premier terrorist organization. Its terror is not only directed against our ally, Israel, but directly against American citizens.

In 1974 a TWA jet was exploded in midair by the PLO; 88 people were killed, including many Americans.

In 1976, an aide to Senator Jacob Javits was murdered by an affiliate of the PLO.

In 1985, Navy diver Robert Stethem was murdered in cold blood by the hijackers of a TWA plane. This terrorist act was carried out by Abu Abbas, who was just a few months ago promoted by the PLO to its executive committee.

The State Department, recognizing the support for the Kemp-Mica-Grassley bill, closed the Washington office of the PLO with considerable reluctance. But the PLO "mission" at the U.N. will remain open unless the Kemp-Mica-Grassley bill is signed into law.

Some Members have claimed in a "Dear Colleague" that Kemp-Mica-Grassley is "dangerous to civil liberties in the United States and to the search for a just and lasting peace in the Middle East."

I find it hard to understand how throwing a bone to the PLO helps bring peace to the Middle East.

I too would object to the provision if it denied a single American his or her constitutional right to free speech—it does not. The bill prohibits paid agents of the PLO from operating an official office on U.S. soil. It does not prohibit an American of advocating, or even actively promoting, whatever cause they wish within U.S. law.

Nor would this provision conflict with the U.N. Headquarters agreement, which specifically states that [quote] "nothing in the agreement shall be construed as in anyway diminishing, abridging, or weakening the right of the United States to safeguard its own security and completely to control the entrance of aliens."

The bottom line is that the United States cannot talk tough about terrorism while continuing to be a safe harbor for agents of PLO terrorism and legitimating the PLO presence in official bodies and capitols around the world
