Dear Barry:

It is my pleasure to invite you to participate in the CSIS conference on Resources, Technology and Future Battlefields to be held in Washington, October 27-29, 1987, in the Wadsworth Room of the International Club, 1800 K Street, Northwest.

As you are aware, the conference will be the culmination of an intensive year-long study of the evolution and likely nature of future air, land, sea, unconventional and space warfare. Participants in the conference will include senior officials representing both government and the private sector. As you can see from the enclosed tentative schedule, this promises to be an exceptional forum for the refinement of concepts which have been discussed over the course of our previous sessions.

We hope that you will attend as much of the proceedings as possible. Please use the enclosed R.S.V.P. form to indicate those sessions you wish to attend. The form should be returned to Mary Park, Director of Conferences at CSIS. Any questions may be addressed to the Political-Military Studies staff at (202) 775-3104.

Let me take this opportunity to thank you for your involvement thus far. We look forward to your participation in the final stages of this important CSIS effort.

Sincerely,
