Texts of Reagan Executive Order and Message to Congress

WASHINGTON, May 1 - Following are the texts of an executive order and a message to Congress signed by President Reagan to-day on his embargo against Nicaragua:

Executive Order

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), Chapter 12 of Title 50 of the United States Code (50 U.S.C. 191 et seq.), and Section 301 of Title 3 of the United States Code, I, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, find that the policies and I, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, find that the policies and actions of the Government of Nicaragua constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States and hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat. I hereby prohibit all imports into the United States of goods and services of Nicaraguan origin; all exports from the United States of goods to or destined for Nicaragua, except those destined for the organized democratic resistance, and transactions relating thereto. democratic resistance, and transactions re-lating thereto.

I hereby prohibit Nicaraguan air carriers from engaging in air transportation to or from points in the United States, and transacfrom points in the United States, and transactions relating thereto.

In addition, I hereby prohibit vessels of Nicaraguan registry from entering into United States ports, and transactions relating thereto.

United States ports, and transactions relating thereto.

The Secretary of the Treasury is delegated and authorized to employ all powers granted to me by the International Emergency Economic Powers Act to carry out the purposes of this order.

The prohibitions set forth in this order shall be effective as of 12:01 A.M., Eastern daylight time, May 7, 1985, and shall be transmitted to the Congress and published in the Federal Register.

Message to Congress

Pursuant to section 204(b) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1703), I hereby report to the Congress that I have exercised my statutory authority to declare a national emergency and to prohibit: (1) all imports into the United States of goods and services of Nicaraguan origin; (2) all exports from the United States of goods to or destined for Nicaragua except those destined for the organized democratic resistance; (3) Nicaraguan air carriers from engaging in air transportation to or from points in the United States; (4) vessels of Nicara.

guan registry from entering into United States ports. These prohibitions will become effective as of 12:01 A.M., Eastern daylight time, May 7, of 12:01 A.M., Eastern daylight time, May 7, 1885.

I am enclosing a copy of the executive order that I have issued making this declaration and exercising these authorities.

I have authorized these steps in response to the emergency situation created by the Nicaraguan Government's agressive activities in Central America. Nicaragua's continuing efforts to subvert its neighbors, its rapid and destabilizing military buildup, its close military and security ties to Cuba and the Soviet Union and its imposition of Communist totalitarian internal rule have been described fully in titp past several weeks. The current visit by Nicaraguan President Ortega to Moscow underscores this disturbing trend. The recent rejection by Nicaragua of my peace initiative, viewed in the light of the constantly rising pressure that Nicaragua's military buildup places on the democratic nations of the region, makes clear the urgent threat that Nicaragua's activities represent to the security of the region and, therefore, to the security and foreign policy of the United States. The activities of Nicaragua, supported by the Soviet Union and its allies, are incompatible with normal commercial relations.

this month's debate on U.S. policy toward Nicaragua, many Members of Congress, both supporters and opponents of my pro-posals, called for the early application of ecoposais, called for the early application of eco-nomic sanctions.

3. I have long made clear that changes in Sandinista behavior must occur if peace is to be achieved in Central America. At this time, I again call on the Government of Nicaragua: To halt its export of armed insurrection, terrorism, and subversion in neighboring countries;

To halt its export of armed insurrection, terrorism, and subversion in neighboring countries;

To end its exentsive military relationship with Cuba and the Soviet bloc and remove their military and security personnel;

To stop its massive arms buildup and help restore the regional military balance; and

To respect, in law and in practice, democratic pluralism and observance of full political and human rights in Nicaragua.

4. U.S. application of these sanctions should be seen by the Government of Nicaragua, and by those who abet it, as unmistakable evidence that, we take seriously the obligation to protect our security interests and those of our friends. I ask the Government of Nicaragua to address seriously the concerns of its neighbors and its own opposition and to honor its solemn commitments to moninterference, nonalignment, respect for democracy, and peace. Failure to do so will only diminish the prospects for a peaceful settlement in Central America.
