

STAT

Subversion and Terrorism,
The Cutting Edge of Soviet Aggression

National Intelligence Symposium

sponsored by

Naples Daily News — Palmer Communications

National Intelligence Symposium

March 31, 1982

The Beach Club Hotel

SUNSET TERRACE ROOM

April 1, 1982

The Depot

9:00 Seating Available

9:30 Opening Ceremony

Invocation: The Rev. Richard Rohrer
First United Methodist Church

Pledge of Allegiance:

Opening Remarks: John Anson Smith
Committee Chairman

Introduction of AFIO
Participants: Hon. Leslie C. Arends
United States Representative (Ret)

9:45 World "Anti Institutional" Warfare
Lt. Gen Eugene F. Tighe Jr. USAF (Ret)

10:45 Coffee Break

11:00 FBI Challenges in Following Soviets in the U.S. Engaged in Subversion.
J. Raymond Wannall
Asst. Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation (Ret)

12:00 Lunch Break — (2 Hours)

2:00 Soviet Involvement in Cuba & Latin America. Soviet Subversion Techniques in Central America

David Atlee Phillips
Chief of Operations, Latin America and the Caribbean,
Central Intelligence Agency (Ret)

3:00 Coffee Break

3:15 Global KGB Activities & Threats

Hon. John M. Maury
Asst. Secretary of Defense (Legislative Affairs) (Ret)

3:45 Panel Discussion

Questions From the Audience and the Media

4:30 Concluding Remarks:

John Anson Smith
Comittee Chairman

John K. Greaney
Executive Director, AFIO

National Intelligence Symposium Co-Chairmen

Hon. Leslie C. Arends

Harold P. Ransburg