

HUMAN EVENTS
2 February, 1985

Human Events Celebrates 40th Anniversary

STAT

To mark the 40th anniversary of HUMAN EVENTS, President Reagan was host of a gala White House reception January 8 for some 300 friends and supporters of HUMAN EVENTS.

In addition to the President and Vice President George Bush, a number of White House and Administration officials attended, including Treasury Secretary Donald Regan, Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, Interior Secretary William Clark, Energy Secretary Donald Hodel, CIA Director William Casey, Presidential Counselor Edwin Meese, Presidential Assistant for Policy Development John Svahn, Presidential Assistant for Public Liaison Faith Whittlesey, Office of Personnel Management Director Donald Devine, Federal Trade Commission Chairman James Miller, Consumer Product Safety Commission Chairman Terrence Scanlon, National Endowment for the Arts Chairman Frank Hodsoll, U.S. Ambassador to the OAS William Middendorf, FBI Director William Webster, Synfuels Corporation Chairman Ed Noble, Board for International Broadcasting Chairman Frank Shakespeare, NASA Administrator James Beggs, Federal Communications Commission Chairman Mark Fowler, Under Secretary of State William Schneider, Deputy Director of Presidential Personnel Becky Norton Dunlop, Assistant Counselor to the President Kenneth Cribb, Special Presidential Assistant for Public Liaison Frank Donatelli, White House Speechwriters Bently Elliott and Anthony Dolan and Frank Fahrenkopf, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

* * * * *

EXCERPTED