Dear Mr. Christiansen:

Thank you for bringing the informative special issue of IEEE Spectrum, "Technology in War and Peace," to my attention. I have received favorable comments on it from my S&T intelligence officers who find it to be a well-done compendium. Since we regularly receive copies of the IEEE Spectrum in the Directorate we will not require any extra copies.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director for Intelligence

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Enclosed is your complimentary copy of "Technology in War and Peace," a special Spectrum issue that probes the changing faces of war making and peacekeeping in this age of electronics, computers, and other advanced technologies.

We hope that you will find this a valuable compendium, and if so, will drop us a note to that effect. In exchange we would be happy to provide you with extra copies for your key staff members -- just specify how many you will need.

Cordially,

DCI
