Talking Points on Unauthorized Disclosures

At our meeting on 15 October 1986, you requested that the UDAC draft a letter for your signature to inform NSPG members of activity to combat unauthorized disclosures since the 8 June 1986 NSPG meeting. In view of the caution expressed at that meeting about the creation of papers which could be misinterpreted, we have prepared a set of talking points, and recommend they be used, instead. If you desire to have the talking points revised or if you prefer a letter instead, please advise.

TALKING POINTS ON UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURES
JUNE - OCTOBER 1986

Action on unauthorized disclosures has included termination of

25X1

More cases are being sent to the FBI for investigation.

Process of bringing leaks to attention of investigators has been accelerated, but more needs to be done.

Meetings among the DCI, Attorney General, Director/FBI and DIRNSA regarding ways to improve anti-unauthorized disclosure efforts.

Reporting to senior officials on nature and scope of unauthorized disclosure problem has been instituted on a monthly basis.

What is needed to assist in combatting unauthorized disclosures:

More rapid interagency support for authenticating and reporting unauthorized disclosures; treat as bank robberies rather than SEC violations.

Improved understanding and agreement on procedures and objectives of interagency efforts to deal effectively with unauthorized disclosures; fragmented efforts demonstrably are ineffective.

Short-to-medium range commitment of more resources to this effort; FBI and CIA commitments should be matched to avoid an unbalanced program.

Personal leadership and example by agency heads, including personal scrutiny of their respective programs to identify and investigate unauthorized disclosures.

Uniform overall approach to media contacts, attribution, backgrounders, and other situations possibly affecting unauthorized disclosures.

There is much to be done; we are only scratching the surface; interagency commitment to a long, uphill struggle is needed.
