Dear Rae:

I am writing to confirm with you my plans to join you for the September 24-27 meeting of the Business-Government Relations Council at Hilton Head. I look forward to the interesting agenda and to participating in the panel on "Leadership--Ethical Dilemmas."

Sincerely yours,

RE: Speaking Invitation
Business-Government Relations Council
Hilton Head
24 - 27 September 1987

Last February you tentatively accepted an invitation from Rae Evans to speak before the Business-Government Relations Council at Hilton Head on Saturday, September 26th at 10:45 a.m. The topic of the annual meeting is "American Leadership at Home and Abroad--The Bicentennial Challenge." I have now received the full agenda which shows you as a member of a panel on "Leadership--Ethical Dilemmas" moderated by Professor Charles Nesson of Harvard School of Law (see agenda opposite). While the panel is made of high caliber participants and acceptances have been received from Senators Nunn and Hollings and Congressmen Dingell and Cheney, I would prefer that you be a featured speaker for an organization like this. Unless you have committed yourself to Rae, I recommend that you reconsider your acceptance, since you will not be a main speaker and you will just be returning from the Middle East. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regrets.

Dear Rae:

Now that I am fully ensconced in my new position as Director of Central Intelligence, I find that my current fall schedule is such that I will not be able to join you for the September 24-27 meeting of the Business-Government Relations Council at Hilton Head. While I did not make plans for Bora Bora, I will just be returning from a lengthy trip abroad prior to the opening of the meeting.

I regret that I will have to miss the annual meeting and hope that you will give me the opportunity to attend again in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence

Dear Judge:

Pull out your calendar and be sure to mark down the September 24-27, 1987 dates for the Business-Government Relations Council annual meeting at the Hotel Inter-Continental on Hilton Head Island. Yours truly, as you know, is Vice President of the organization, and I am responsible for planning the annual meeting. I've attached a copy of the membership directory of B-GRC to give you a better idea of the group's make-up.

Our tentative theme is "American Leadership at Home and Abroad -- the Bicentennial Challenge." We have invited a number of your pals and mine to join us for the two sessions. When we get a little closer to the event, we can go over topics of interest for your participation.

Remember, you absolutely, positively have to come, so don't make any plans to go to Bora Bora in the meantime. In fact, why don't you see if my pal, Drudie, can join you. She would enjoy the tennis, the weather, and the hotel a lot more than Chicago!

Talk to you soon.

Best,

Rae F. Evans (Agent 38)

Dear Rae:

Subject to the usual vicissitudes, I shall be very pleased join you for the September 24-27 meeting of the Business-Government Relations Council at Hilton Head, I have a firm commitment Friday, September 25th, for a National Academy graduation, but believe I can fly directly from Quantico to Hilton Head later that afternoon.

While I will be seeing you frequently in the interim, if there are any technical matters to be discussed, the best point of contact will be [redacted] of our Office of Congressional and Public Affairs. In the meantime, I am happy to participate and appreciate the invitation.

Always my best,

Sincerely,

Dear

Per our conversation, enclosed are Rae Evan's original letter inviting Judge Webster to the Business-Government Relations Council annual meeting and a copy of the program agenda (still in draft form). I've also enclosed a membership directory for your information.

As you know the meeting will be held September 24-27, 1987, at the Hotel Inter-Continental on Hilton Head Island. It is planned that Judge Webster will take part in the large panel session on Saturday morning with other distinguished guests. Some of these confirmed guests include Senator Sam Nunn, Senator Ernest Hollings, Congressman John Dingell, and Congressman Dick Cheney, among others.

As we draw closer to the meeting date, I will need some additional details on Judge Webster's length of stay, transportation and security needs, etc. Please do not hesitate to give me a call if I can be of further assistance or answer any questions.

Sincerely,

Karen C. Walker
