Dear Bill:

I just had the pleasure of reading your remarks before the ADL Tenth Annual Leadership Conference on March 22, 1988. They were, as usual, comforting and enlightening and reminded me of how glad I am that you are serving where you are.

Hoping to see you in Toronto in August at the ABA meetings.

Sincerely,

Speaking Invitation
Anti-Defamation League (ADL)
of B'nai B'rith
Washington, D.C.
Tuesday, 22 March

The Director of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B'nai B'rith, David Brody, has invited you to speak at its Tenth Annual National Leadership Conference breakfast on Tuesday, 22 March, at the Washington Marriott Hotel. The suggested format is 15-20 minutes of remarks on any topic that you choose followed by 10-15 minutes of questions and answers. You can expect an audience of 200 business and professional people between the ages of 30 and 50 from around the US who are active in civil rights. Although the media will not be present, the ADL publishes a pamphlet which includes articles on speeches given during their three-day program.

The League also plans to visit the White House for a briefing by Howard Baker and spend an afternoon on the Hill talking to the Senators. In 1985 you spoke to the Anti-Defamation League in Chicago.

Since the return date from your Far East trip is uncertain as well as the dates you are to give testimony on the Hill, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, please sign the attached letter for your signature.

Dear Dave:

Thank you for your invitation to address the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith National Leadership Conference on Tuesday, March 22nd at a breakfast meeting. I am delighted to accept and I will look forward to meeting with your group of national representatives. A member of my Public Affairs staff will be in touch to make arrangements.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dave:

Many thanks for your kind invitation to speak to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith National Leadership Conference on Tuesday, March 22nd. Unfortunately, I am not able to make a committment at this time and I know you must make plans for another speaker. I know I would have enjoyed meeting with you and your group.

Best wishes for a successful program and please give my regards to your national representatives.

Dear Bill:

As I told you just a few minutes ago, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith will be holding its Tenth Annual National Leadership Conference from March 20 to 22 here in the nation's capital. Some two hundred of our young national leaders from around the country will be in attendance to listen to Senators, Congressmen, White House and State Department officials, political journalists, media commentators and others.

As I told you, too, we would very much like to have Judge Webster speak to the group at breakfast on Monday morning, March 21 at the Washington Marriott Hotel on 22nd Street, N.W. which will be the group's headquarters. I do hope that the Judge's schedule will permit him to accept our invitation. I know that a breakfast meeting with the Judge would be one of the highlights of the group's visit here.

I look forward to an early and favorable reply.

Sincerely,

David A. Brody
