Mr. William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Webster:

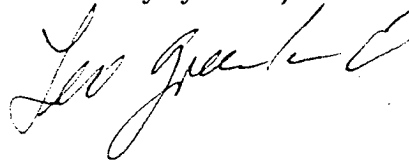

Thank you for your letter of November 20th. I certainly understand the weight of the schedule you are carrying in your new position.

After hearing you speak at the Chief Executive Organization's seminar last fall in Washington, I went away inspired not only because of what you said, but the sincerity in which you presented your thoughts. It is important that business people who influence thousands of other people help you revitalize the image and integrity of the CIA. The platform we provide is unique because of the top level businessmen and women who would attend our breakfast.

Is it at all possible to select a Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday morning in March, 1988 to welcome you to New York and have you address our very interested audience?

I want to take this time to wish you and your family good health, happiness and fulfillment for 1988.

Sincerely yours,

LG:ac

RE: Speaking Invitation
Smith/Greenland Breakfast Series
Bankers Trust Building
280 Park Avenue
New York City
1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10 December

STAT

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Smith/Greenland Company has invited you to address one of the Smith/Greenland Breakfast Series on 1, 2, 3, or 8, 9, 10 December in New York City at the Bankers Trust Building from 8:30 - 10:00 a.m. The suggested format is 20 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. The topic would be of your choice. You could expect an audience of 150 - 200 Chairmen of the Board, Presidents and Vice Presidents of such leading companies as Nabisco, Citicorp, Sony, and Pfizer. Although the press does not cover the breakfasts as media events, leaders in the publishing industry would be present.

Smith/Greenland is a highly successful profit-oriented advertising firm that handles such accounts as the New York City Department of General Services, Somerset liquor account (billings run $23 - $27 million), and Faberge men's McGregor cologne ($2 - $3 million). (See opposite for news articles.) According to the breakfast program, the purpose is to broaden horizons of the advertising people and their clients. "Each speaker represents an interface with our society at large. By listening and exchanging views, we add new windows to our own world." Speakers are invited to address the different problems that confront today's world in order to educate the members of the audience. The Breakfasts are gratis for all attendees. Previous speakers have been Admiral Hyman Rickover, John Cardinal O'Connor and Admiral Stansfield Turer in 1982 after leaving the CIA. (See brochure opposite for list of previous speakers.)

STAT

As you remember, you met Mr. Greenland when you spoke at the CEO Breakfast in October. I believe these breakfasts serve a dual purpose of entertaining clients as well as advertising for new ones, and I think you should decline this invitation. As Director of Central Intelligence, I do not believe that you should be involved in that type of program. If you agree, please sign the attached letter of regret.

Dear Mr. Greenland:

Many thanks for your invitation to speak at the Smith/Greenland Breakfast Series the early part of December in New York City. In my new position as Director of Central Intelligence, my schedule is heavily committed and I am unable to accept the honor. It was good meeting you when you were in Washington attending the Chief Executive Organization's seminar.

Best wishes for a successful breakfast series.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

LEO GREENLAND, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

October 29, 1987

Mr. William M. Baker
Director, Public Affairs
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Baker:

It was a real treat meeting and listening to Judge William Webster. He represents everything that is good in America.

We will be honored to have Judge Webster speak at our breakfast December 1st, 2nd or 3rd, or 8th, 9th or 10th.

Our audience is a very special one. It is comprised of some of the most influential, prestigious businessmen and women from companies across the entire business spectrum. They are Chairmen of the Board, Presidents and Vice Presidents who would be most interested in hearing Judge Webster's message.

Each of our previous speakers has participated on a pro bono basis because of the quality of the audience. The breakfasts are held at 8:30AM and conclude by 10:00AM so that the entire day is free for other commitments. The location is in the Bankers Trust Building, 280 Park Avenue, on the luxurious 10th floor conference area. Approximately 150 to 200 attend, by invitation only.

As you can see by the enclosed invitation, our former guest speakers have included Admiral Stansfield Turner, General John W. Vessey, Jr., Admiral Hyman G. Rockover and John Cardinal O'Connor.

I would need a photograph and biography of the Judge.

I hope any of the above dates will be agreeable and look forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,
