Dear Mr. Gates:

I was very sorry to learn that you have been obliged to withdraw from our intelligence conference. I will keep you in mind for another occasion.

If you would like to suggest someone, particularly from your organization, I would be very happy to consider him. I think it would be desirable to have an active practitioner at the table.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Muller

Dear Mr. Muller:

I deeply regret that an unforeseen official commitment obliges me to withdraw my acceptance to participate in the Ditchley Foundation conference to be held October 7-9 at Ditchley Park. I genuinely had looked forward to the discussion of "oversight" and hope that the conference will be a success.

I hope that this change in my plans, which became necessary only this week, will not prove an inconvenience. Again, I thank you for the invitation to participate. I have heard many favorable comments about conferences at Ditchley Park and had looked forward to attending. Perhaps another time.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Gates:

Thank you for the good news that you will participate in our conference October 7-9. I have advised Sir John Graham, Director of British Ditchley, and he will send you the agenda, the various conference papers and a travel inquiry as soon as these documents are available. Mrs. Gates will be welcome to attend the sessions if she wishes, and I have requested double accommodation now as there are a limited number of double rooms. Please advise me of her plans when you can.

May I also ask you to send me a brief biography to be used with the list of participants.

I hope you will have an enjoyable and rewarding weekend at Ditchley. If I can be of any assistance, please do contact me.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Muller
