3. Tour of E-Systems, Tuesday, 19 January: You are requested to be at E-Systems the Garland Division, 1200 Jupiter, Garland, Texas at 7:45 a.m. where you will be met by President and Chief Operating Officer of E-Systems, David Tacke. (See tab for biography.) Breakfast, briefings, and tour of the facility are planned. Departure is scheduled for 10:30 a.m.

4. Arrangements for the Dallas Assembly, Charter 100, and the Texas Association of the Atlantic Council Luncheon Meeting, Tuesday, 19 January: You are requested to be at the Pavillion Room of the Fairmont Hotel at 1717 N. Akard Street at 12:00 noon where Secretary of the Dallas Assembly, Gay Oxford, will meet you and escort you to your table. You will be seated between your hosts for the luncheon Roy Herberger, President of the Dallas Assembly and Dean of the Edwin Cox School of Business at SMU, and Joel Williams, Program Chairman of the Dallas Assembly and Chairman of the Board of the Bristol Group. (See tab for biographies.) In addition the following will be seated at your table:

T-202-1P

Latham and President of DCWA and Chairman of the Board of Vaughn Petroleum, Jack Vaughn. (See tab for biographies.) At approximately 5:55 p.m. you will be escorted to the dais in the front of the room and seated with Mr. Vaughn and General Latham. Your address on "What Is Going On In The Soviet Union" will begin at 6:00 p.m. and Jack Vaughn will introduce you. The proposed format is 30 minutes of remarks and 30 minutes of questions and answers monitored by General Latham. Adjournment is at 7:00 p.m. A standing podium and microphone will be available. The room will be set up as a theater. Security will tape your remarks for our records. The World Affairs Council does not plan to publish or tape your remarks.

The audience will be made up of approximately 200 men and women representing North Texas business, industry, academia, and the professions. Although members of the media are expected to attend, we have not received confirmation of which newspapers or networks will be represented. Members of the media will be seated in the back of the room and will be permitted to ask questions during the question and answer period. Since foreign nationals are members of the DCWA, you can expect several in the audience.

The Dallas Council is an independent, voluntary, nonpartisan organization of civic-minded citizens and businessmen of Dallas. The total number of members and volunteers is approximately 3,000. The purpose of the Council is to enhance Dallas' stature as an international city and to promote the study of world affairs. The Council encourages informed and intelligent discussion of international events, and promotes programs of cultural interest to the Dallas community. (See back pocket for list of Board of Directors.) Previous speakers have included Vice President Bush, Secretary of State George Shultz, Ambassador Jeanne Kirkpatrick, and Ambassador Vernon Walters. Recently Vladimir Sakharov and Georgianna Geyer spoke to the organization and President Mubarak of Egypt is scheduled to speak at the end of this month.

6. Arrangements for the DCWA Dinner and Meeting with Leading Dallas Businessmen, 19 January: You are requested to be in Ballroom B on the third floor at 7:30 p.m. for the reception. Dinner begins at 8:00 p.m. and you will be seated at a hollow square table with Jack Vaughn on your right and David Tacke on your left. Your remarks are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. and you will be introduced by Jack Vaughn. The suggested format is 10 minutes of off-the-record remarks on any topic of your choice followed by a discussion period. A podium and microphone will be available. Adjournment is scheduled for 9:30 p.m.

An audience of approximately 30 - 40 leading Dallas businessmen will attend the dinner. Many of them will have heard your 6:00 p.m. address. The media will not be present, but Captain Peter Smit from the Netherlands will attend. (See tab for list of attendees.)

7. Arrangements for Breakfast Meeting with Leading Dallas CEOs, Wednesday, 20 January: You are requested to be in the main lobby of the Stouffer Hotel at 7:30 a.m. where you will be met by Trammel Crow and escorted to the Cafe on the second floor for breakfast hosted by Mr. Crow and Bum Bright. (See tab for biographies.) The suggested format is for you to give 10 minutes of off-the-record remarks at 8:00 a.m. followed by informal discussion. You will be introduced by Trammel Crow. Adjournment will be at 8:45 a.m. Approximately 25 leading Dallas CEOs will attend. Neither media representatives nor foreign nationals will be present. (See tab for list of invitees.)

A group of 25 men who are the largest employers in North Texas meet occasionally for breakfast when there is an opportunity to hear from national leaders. Judge Webster spoke to this group when he was the Director of the FBI. Mr. Crow will also be in the audience at the DCWA meeting and dinner on Tuesday evening.
