100TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 5112

To modify the authority of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to investigate and determine discrimination claims made by Federal employees against the Federal Government, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 28, 1988

Mr. LANTOS (for himself, Mr. FRANK, Mr. DIOGUARDI, and Mr. NIELSON of Utah) introduced the following bill; which was referred jointly to the Committees on Education and Labor and Post Office and Civil Service

A BILL

To modify the authority of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to investigate and determine discrimination claims made by Federal employees against the Federal Government, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Federal Employee Dis-
5 crimination Complaint Procedures Act of 1988".

6 SEC. 2. AMENDMENTS.

7 (a) DEFINITIONS.—Section 701 of the Civil Rights Act
8 of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e) is amended—

1 (1) in paragraph (f) by striking "The term" and
2 inserting "Except when it appears as part of the term
3 'Federal employee', the term ", and

4 (2) by adding at the end the following:

STAT

5 "(l) The term 'Commission' means the Equal Employ-
6 ment Opportunity Commission.

7 "(m) The term 'entity of the Federal Government'
8 means an entity to which section 717(a) applies, except that 9 such term does not include the Library of Congress.

10 "(n) The term 'Federal employee' means an individual
11 who is employed by an entity of the Federal Government.

12 "(o) The term 'Federal employment' means employment
13 by an entity of the Federal Government.

14 "(p) The terms 'government', 'government agency', and 15 'political subdivision' do not include any entity of the Federal 16 Government."

17 (b) EEOC AND JUDICIAL DETERMINATION OF DIS-
18 CRIMINATION CLAIMS RELATING TO FEDERAL EMPLOY-
19 MENT.—Section 717 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42
20 U.S.C. 2000e-16) is amended—

21 (1) by redesignating subsection (e) as subsection 22 (j), and

23 (2) by striking subsections (c) and (d) and inserting
24 the following:

1           “(c)(1) Whenever a charge is filed timely by or on behalf
2 of an individual, or by a member of the Commission, alleging
3 that an entity of the Federal Government has engaged in 4 discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national 5 origin, the Commission shall—

6           “(A) serve a notice of the charge (including the 7 date, place, and circumstances of the alleged discrimi-
8 nation) on the head of such entity not later than 10 9 days after the charge is filed; and

10           “(B) make an investigation of the charge.

11           “(2)(A) A charge filed under this section shall be in 12 writing under oath or affirmation and shall contain—

13           “(i) such information and be in such form as the 14 Commission requires; and

15           “(ii) a certification that, not less than 30 days
16 before the charge is filed, such individual—

17           “(I) notified such entity of the specific nature
18 of such charge and the intent to file such charge;
19 and

20           “(II) was reasonably available for counseling
21 by such entity regarding such charge.

22           “(B) A charge arising under this section shall be filed
23 with the Commission not later than 180 days after the al-
24 leged discrimination occurs.

1           “(3)(A) Whenever a charge is filed under this section
2 with the Commission and the Commission concludes on the 3 basis of a preliminary investigation that prompt judicial 4 action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section,
5 the Commission may bring a civil action in an appropriate
6 district court of the United States for appropriate temporary 7 or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the charge.

8           “(B) Any temporary restraining order or other order
9 granting preliminary or temporary relief shall be issued in 10 accordance with rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Proce-
11 dure, except that any such order may be issued by the court
12 if the Commission shows that—

13           “(i) there is a substantial likelihood that the indi-14 vidual aggrieved by the unlawful discrimination alleged 15 in such charge will prevail on the merits of such 16 charge; and

17           “(ii) undue hardship to such individual will result 18 if the court does not issue such order.

19           “(4)(A) Not later than 60 days after a charge is timely
20 filed, the Commission shall determine whether there is rea-
21 sonable cause to believe that the charge is true.

22           “(B) The Commission shall promptly notify the individ-
23 ual aggrieved by the alleged discrimination and the respond-
24 ent of its determination under subparagraph (A).

1           “(5)(A) If the Commission determines after such investi-
2 gation that there is reasonable cause to believe that the 3 charge is true, the Commission shall endeavor to eliminate 4 the alleged unlawful discrimination by informal methods of 5 conference, conciliation, and persuasion.

6           “(B) If the Commission—

7               “(i) does not comply with subparagraph (A); or

8               “(ii) determines that there is reasonable cause to 9 believe that the charge is true and is unable to secure,
10 within the 90-day period beginning on the date the 11 charge is filed, from the respondent a conciliation
12 agreement acceptable to the individual aggrieved by 13 the alleged discrimination;

14 then such individual, not later than 120 days after the charge
15 is filed, either may file a request with the Commission that 16 such charge be adjudicated by an administrative law judge of 17 the Commission or may commence a civil action in an appro-
18 priate district court of the United States based on the claim
19 with respect to which the charge is filed. Such civil action
20 shall be dismissed if such individual timely files such a re-
21 quest with the Commission.

22           “(C) If the Commission determines timely that there is 23 no reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true—

24               “(i) the Commission shall immediately dismiss the 25 charge; and

1           “(ii) such individual, not later than 120 days after
2           the charge is filed, may commence a civil action in an
3           appropriate district court of the United States based on 4           the claim with respect to which the charge is filed.

5           “(D) The standards and procedures applicable to deter-
6           mining under section 706(b) whether there is reasonable
7           cause to believe that a charge is true shall apply with respect
8           to determining under this subsection whether there is reason-
9           able cause to believe that a charge is true.

10          “(6)(A)(i) If the Commission receives under paragraph 11          (5)(B) a timely request that the charge be adjudicated by an 12          administrative law judge of the Commission, an administra-
13          tive law judge shall determine the charge in accordance with 14          section 554 of title 5 of the United States Code, notwith-
15          standing subsection (a)(2) of such section, after an opportuni-16          ty for a hearing on the record. Such hearing, if any, shall be 17          concluded not later than 180 days after the Commission re-18          ceives such timely request. Not later than 90 days after the 19          conclusion of such hearing, the administrative law judge shall 20          determine the charge in accordance with such section.

21          “(ii) For purposes of making such determination, the 22          Commission shall issue subpoenas in accordance with section 23          555(d) of title 5, United States Code.

24          “(B)(i) If a preponderance of the evidence received dem-
25          onstrates that the charge is true, then the administrative law

1 judge shall issue, and cause to be served on the head of such
2 entity, an order requiring such entity—

3 “(I) to cease and desist from engaging in the un-
4 lawful discrimination alleged in the charge;

5 “(II) to take such affirmative action as may be 6 appropriate; and

7 “(III) to provide any appropriate relief of a kind
8 described in subsection (d)(2)(A).

9 “(ii) If a preponderance of the evidence fails to demon-
10 strate that the charge is true, then the administrative law
11 judge shall issue an order dismissing the charge.

12 “(C)(i) Not later than 30 days after an administrative 13 law judge issues an order under subparagraph (B), an individ-
14 ual or entity of the Federal Government aggrieved by such 15 order may appeal such order to the Commission.

16 “(ii) Not later than 90 days after such order is appealed 17 to the Commission, the Commission shall affirm, reverse, or 18 modify such order.

19 “(iii) An individual who is aggrieved by—

20 “(I) such order and does not appeal such order to 21 the Commission;

22 “(II) a determination made under clause (ii) by 23 the Commission; or

24 “(III) by the failure of the Commission to comply 25 with clause (ii);

1 may commence a civil action, not later than 30 days after
2 such determination is timely made, or 120 days after such
3 order is issued under subparagraph (B), whichever occurs
4 earlier, for judicial review in the United States Court of Ap-
5 peals for the District of Columbia Circuit or in the United 6 States Court of Appeals for the circuit in which the unlawful 7 discrimination is alleged to have occurred, for the circuit in 8 which the employment records relevant to such discrimina-
9 tion are maintained and administered, or for the circuit in 10 which such individual would have worked but for the alleged 11 discrimination in violation of subsection (a).

12       “(iv) If an individual with respect to whom a charge is 13 filed under this section prevails under this section with re-
14 spect to unlawful discrimination alleged in the charge, the 15 entity that engaged in such unlawful discrimination shall pro-
16 vide to the individual all the relief—

17               “(I) that is awarded under this section to such in-18 dividual; and

19               “(II) with respect to which a timely appeal is not 20 taken under this section or under title 28 of the United 21 States Code.

22       “(v) The Commission may commence a civil action, in 23 any court of appeals of the United States referred to in clause
24 (iii), to enforce—

1           “(I) an order issued under subparagraph (B) by an
2           administrative law judge if an appeal from such order
3           is not taken timely under clause (i) or (iii); or

4           “(II) an order issued under clause (ii) by the Com-
5           mission if a civil action to review such order is not
6           commenced timely under clause (iii).

7           “(vi) To enforce an order referred to in clause (v), the 8           Commission may order that any employee charged with com-
9           plying with such order shall not be entitled to receive pay-10          ment for service as an employee during any period that such 11          order has not been complied with. The Commission shall cer-12          tify to the Comptroller General of the United States that an 13          order has been issued under this clause. No payment shall be 14          made out of the Treasury of the United States for any service
15          specified in the order issued under this clause by the Commis-16          sion.

17          “(7)(i) Upon commencement of a civil action under para-
18          graph (6)(C), the Commission shall file with the court of ap-19          peals the record in accordance with section 2112 of title 28,
20          United States Code.

21          “(ii) Upon commencement of a civil action under para-
22          graph (6)(C), the court shall cause notice of the action to be 23          served on the parties involved.

24          “(iii) The commencement of a civil action under para-
25          graph (6)(C) shall not operate as a stay of the order with

1 respect to which the action is commenced, but the court in its
2 discretion, may suspend the operation of such order pending a 3 determination of the action.

4       “(iv)(I) Review by the court of appeals of an order
5 issued under paragraph (6)(B), including any determination
6 made under paragraph (6)(C)(ii) by the Commission, shall be 7 on the record in accordance with section 706 of title 5,
8 United States Code.

9       “(II) No objection that has not been urged before the 10 administrative law judge or the Commission, as the case may 11 be, may be considered by the court unless the failure to urge 12 such objection is excused by extraordinary circumstances.

13       “(III) The findings of the administrative law judge or 14 the Commission, as the case may be, with respect to ques-
15 tions of fact shall be conclusive if supported by a preponder-
16 ance of the evidence on the record considered as a whole.

17       “(IV) If the individual or the entity of the Federal Gov-
18 ernment with respect to which such order applies requests
19 leave to adduce additional evidence and shows to the satisfac-
20 tion of the court that the additional evidence is material and 21 that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce
22 the additional evidence before the administrative law judge or 23 the Commission, as the case may be, then the court may 24 order the additional evidence to be taken before the Commis-
25 sion, or its designee, and to be made a part of the record.

1           “(V) The administrative law judge or the Commission,
2 as the case may be, may modify its findings as to the facts, or 3 may make new findings, by reason of additional evidence so
4 taken and filed. The administrative law judge or the Commis-
5 sion shall file any modified or new findings, which shall be 6 conclusive with respect to questions of fact if supported by a
7 preponderance of the evidence on the record considered as a
8 whole. The administrative law judge or the Commission shall 9 file recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting
10 aside of the order, including any determination made under 11 paragraph (6)(C)(ii) by the Commission.

12           “(VI) On the filing of the record with the court, the 13 jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment
14 shall be final, except that the judgment shall be subject to 15 review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon writ
16 of certiorari or certification as provided in section 1254 of 17 title 28.

18           “(8) The courts of appeals of the United States (other
19 than the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Cir-20 cuit) shall have jurisdiction to review orders issued under this 21 section by administrative law judges, including any determi-
22 nation made under paragraph (6)(C)(ii) by the Commission.

23           “(d)(1)(A) The district courts of the United States shall 24 have jurisdiction of actions commenced under this section,
25 other than subsection (c)(6)(C).

1           “(B) With respect to a claim arising under this section,
2 an action may be commenced in the United States District
3 Court for the District of Columbia or in any judicial district in 4 which the unlawful discrimination is alleged to have oc-
5 curred, in the judicial district in which the employment
6 records relevant to such discrimination are maintained and 7 administered, or in the judicial district in which the aggrieved
8 individual would have worked but for the alleged unlawful 9 discrimination.

10           “(2)(A) If the district court finds that an entity of the 11 Federal Government intentionally engaged in, or is intention-12 ally engaging in, unlawful discrimination in violation of sub-13 section (a), the court may enjoin such entity and the head of 14 such entity from engaging in such unlawful discrimination,
15 and order such affirmative action as may be appropriate, 16 which may include reinstatement or hiring of employees (with 17 or without backpay) or such other equitable relief as the court 18 deems appropriate.

19           “(B) Back pay liability shall not accrue from a date oc-
20 ccurring more than 2 years before the filing of the charge with 21 the Commission.

22           “(C) No order of a district court shall require the hiring,
23 reinstatement, or promotion of an individual as an employee
24 or the payment to an individual of any back pay if the indi-
25 vidual was refused employment, was refused advancement, or

1 was suspended or discharged for any reason other than dis-
2 crimination on account of race, color, religion, sex, or nation-
3 al origin or in violation of subsection (a).

4 “(e) The provisions of the Act entitled “An Act to 5 amend the Judicial Code and to define and limit the jurisdic-
6 tion of courts sitting in equity, and for other purposes”, ap-
7 proved March 23, 1932 (29 U.S.C. 101-115), shall not apply
8 with respect to actions commenced under this section.

9 “(f) If an entity of the Federal Government or the head
10 of such entity fails to comply with an order of a court issued
11 in an action commenced under this section, the Commission 12 or the prevailing party may commence a proceeding to 13 compel compliance with such order.

14 “(g) Any action or proceeding commenced under this 15 section, in a district court of the United States shall be sub-
16 ject to appeal as provided in sections 1291 and 1292 of title
17 28, United States Code.

18 “(h) In any action or proceeding commenced under this 19 section, the court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing 20 party, other than the Commission or an entity of the Federal 21 Government (including the head of such entity), a reasonable 22 attorney's fee as part of the costs. An entity of the Federal 23 Government shall be liable for costs and interest the same as 24 a private person.

1           “(i) If an individual with respect to whom a charge is
 2 filed under this section prevails under this section with re-
 3 spect to unlawful discrimination alleged in the charge, the
 4 entity that engaged in such unlawful discrimination shall pay
 5 interest on any monetary relief awarded to such individual.
 6 Interest shall be paid under this subsection at the rate deter-
 7 mined under section 1961(a) of title 28, United States Code,
 8 and shall run from the date the charge is filed to the date
 9 such relief is paid or the date from which interest begins to 10 accrue under section 1961 of such title, whichever occurs 11 earlier.

9. ——— 12           “(j) Any amount (including an attorney’s fee, costs, and 13 interest) awarded under this section shall be paid by the Fed-
 14 eral entity that violated subsection (a) from any funds made 15 available to such entity by appropriation or otherwise.

16           “(k) This section, as in effect immediately before the 17 effective date of the Federal Employee Discrimination Com-18 plaint Procedures Act of 1988, shall apply with respect to 19 employment in the Library of Congress.”

20 SEC. 3. EEOC AUTHORITY TO CONDUCT LITIGATION.

21           Section 705(b) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42
 22 U.S.C. 2000e-4(b)) is amended—

23                   (1) in paragraph (2) by striking “Attorneys” and 24                   inserting “Subject to the requirement specified in para-25                   graph (3), attorneys”, and

1 (2) by adding at the end the following:

→ 2 “(3) Notwithstanding sections 516, 517, 518, and 519
3 of title 28, United States Code, and paragraph (2) of this 4 subsection, attorneys appointed under this section shall
5 appear for and represent the Commission in any case in court
6 with respect to a claim arising under section 717 against an 7 entity of the Federal Government.”.

8 SEC. 4. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

9 Section 717(b) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42
10 U.S.C. 2000e-16(b)) is amended by striking “Civil Service
11 Commission” each place it appears and inserting “Commis-12 sion”.

13 SEC. 5. TRANSFERS OF PERSONNEL AND RECORDS.

14 (a) PERSONNEL REQUIRED TO BE TRANSFERRED.—

15 Civilian personnel who are employed on the effective date of 16 this Act by an entity of the Federal Government (as defined
17 in section 701(m) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as added
18 by section 2(a)(2)) in permanent positions the full-time duties 19 of which are—

✓ 20 (1) investigating charges filed under section 717
21 of such Act against such entity,

22 (2) recommending to the Equal Employment Op-
23 portunity Commission the disposition of such charges,

24 or

1           (3) a combination of the activities specified in 2           paragraphs (1) and (2),
3 shall be transferred in accordance with subsection (b) to the 4 Commission.

5           (b) TIME OF TRANSFER.—The Director of the Office of 6 Management and Budget shall determine a schedule for the 7 orderly transfer required by subsection (a) of personnel from 8 the various entities of the Federal Government. Such sched-
9 ule shall take into consideration the needs of each entity of 10 the Federal Government to retain sufficient skilled personnel
11 to complete administrative action on those charges filed 12 under section 717 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.
13 2000e-16)—

14           (1) that are pending before such entity, and 15           (2) to which the amendments made by this Act do 16           not apply.

17           (c) EFFECT ON TRANSFERRED PERSONNEL.—The 18 transfer in accordance with this section of any Federal em-
19 ployee shall not cause such employee to be separated from 20 service, or reduced in grade or compensation, in the 1-year 21 period beginning on the date such employee is transferred.

22           (d) RECORDS.—Not later than 10 days after the effec-
23 tive date of this Act, the head of each entity of the Federal 24 Government shall transfer to the Equal Employment Oppor-
25 tunity Commission all records relating to charges arising

1 under section 717 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.
2 2000e-16)—

3 (1) that are filed against such entity, and 4 (2) with respect to which such entity does not 5 issue to the individuals by or on whose behalf such 6 charges are filed proposed dispositions of such charges,
7 before the effective date of this Act.

8 (e) EFFECT ON ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGES OF
9 EEOC.—The amendments made by this Act, and the imple-
10 mentation of such amendments, shall not cause any individual 11 who on the effective date of this Act is an administrative 12 judge of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to 13 be separated from service, or reduced in grade or compensa-
14 tion, in the 1-year period beginning on such effective date.
15 SEC. 6. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.

16 (a) EFFECT ON FEDERAL GRIEVANCES PROCEDURE.—
17 The amendments made by this Act shall not be construed to 18 supersede or modify the operation of section 7121(d) of title
19 5, United States Code.

20 (b) REFERENCES IN OTHER LAWS.—Any reference in 21 any law (other than title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964)
22 to any provision of title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
23 amended by this Act shall be deemed to be a reference to 24 such provision as amended by this Act.

1 SEC. 7. EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS.

2 (a) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act and the amendments
3 made by this Act shall take effect—

4 (1) 1 year after the date of the enactment of this 5 Act, or

6 (2) on the first day of the first fiscal year begin-
7 ning after the date of the enactment of this Act,
8 whichever occurs later.

9 (b) APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS.—Except as pro-
10 vided in section 6(b), the amendments made by this Act shall 11 apply only with respect to—

12 (1) charges filed under section 717 of the Civil 13 Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e-16) on or after 14 the effective date of this Act, and

15 (2) charges filed under such section before such 16 effective date if, as of such effective date, the entities
17 of the Federal Government (as defined in section
18 701(m) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as added by 19 section 2(a)(2)) against whom such charges are filed 20 have not issued to the aggrieved individuals proposed 21 dispositions of such charges.

22 (c) COMPUTATION OF TIME WITH RESPECT TO CER-
23 TAIN PENDING CHARGES.—For purposes of section 717 of 24 the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e-16), as 25 amended by section 2(b)(2), charges described in subsection

1 (b)(2) of this section that are timely filed before the effective
2 date of this Act shall be considered to be—

3 (1) timely filed under such section 717 as so 4 amended, and

5 (2) filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity
6 Commission immediately after such effective date.

SUBCHAPTER VI—EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

§ 2000e. Definitions

For the purposes of this subchapter—

(a) The term "person" includes one or more individuals, governments, governmental agencies, political subdivisions, labor unions, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, mutual companies, joint-stock companies, trusts, unincorporated organizations, trustees, trustees in cases under Title 11, or receivers.

(b) The term "employer" means a person engaged in an industry affecting commerce who has fifteen or more employees for each working day in each of twenty or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year, and any agent of such a person, but such term does not include (1) the United States, a corporation wholly owned by the Government of the United States, an Indian tribe, or any department or agency of the District of Columbia subject by statute to procedures of the competitive service (as defined in section 2102 of Title 5), or (2) a bona fide private membership club (other than a labor organization) which is exempt from taxation under section 501(c) of Title 26, except that during the first year after March 24, 1972, persons having fewer than twenty-five employees (and their agents) shall not be considered employers.

(c) The term "employment agency" means any person regularly undertaking with or without compensation to procure employees for an employer or to procure for employees opportunities to work for an employer and includes an agent of such a person.

(d) The term "labor organization" means a labor organization engaged in an industry affecting commerce, and any agent of such an organization, and includes any organization of any kind, any agency, or employee representation committee, group, association, or plan so engaged in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours, or other terms or conditions of employment, and any conference, general committee, joint or system board, or joint council so engaged which is subordinate to a national or international labor organization.

(e) A labor organization shall be deemed to be engaged in an industry affecting commerce if (1) it maintains or operates a hiring hall or hiring office which procures employees for an employer or procures for employees opportunities to work for an employer, or (2) the number of its members (or, where it is a labor organization composed of other labor organizations or their representatives, if the aggregate number of the members of such other labor organization) is (A) twenty-five or more during the first year after March 24, 1972, or (B) fifteen or more thereafter, and such labor organization—

(1) is the certified representative of employees under the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, or the Railway Labor Act, as amended;

(2) although not certified, is a national or international labor organization or a local labor organization recognized or acting as the representative of employees of an employer or employers engaged in an industry affecting commerce; or

(3) has chartered a local labor organization or subsidiary body which is representing or actively seeking to represent employees of employers within the meaning of paragraph (1) or (2); or

(4) has been chartered by a labor organization representing or actively seeking to represent employees within the meaning of paragraph (1) or (2) as the local or subordinate body through which such employees may enjoy membership or become affiliated with such labor organization; or

(5) is a conference, general committee, joint or system board, or joint council subordinate to a national or international labor organization, which includes a labor organization engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of any of the preceding paragraphs of this subsection.

(f) The term "employee" means an individual employed by an employer, except that the term "employee" shall not include any person elected to public office in any State or political subdivision of any State by the qualified voters thereof, or any person chosen by such officer to be on such officer's personal staff, or an appointee on the policy making level or an immediate adviser with respect to the exercise of the constitutional or legal powers of the office. The exemption set forth in the preceding sentence shall not include employees subject to the civil service laws of a State government, governmental agency or political subdivision.

(g) The term "commerce" means trade, traffic, commerce, transportation, transmission, or communication among the several States; or between a State and any place outside thereof; or within the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States; or between points in the same State but through a point outside thereof.

(h) The term "industry affecting commerce" means any activity, business, or industry in commerce or in which a labor and representative of employees under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, or Labor Act, as amended;

certified, is a national or international labor organization recognized as representative of employees of an employer engaged in an industry affecting commerce;

a local labor organization or subsidiary organization representing or actively seeking to represent employees within the meaning of paragraph entered by a labor organization representing to represent employees within the meaning of paragraph (1) or (2) as the local or subordinate organization in which such employees may enjoy membership or affiliation with such labor organization;

or, general committee, joint or system of labor organization subordinate to a national or international labor organization, which includes a labor organization in an industry affecting commerce within the meaning of the preceding paragraphs of this subsection.

"employee" means an individual employed by an employer. The term "employee" shall not include any individual who is an officer, agent, or member of the board of directors or any officer, agent, or member of the board of directors thereof, or any person who is on such officer's personal staff, or who is in the making level or an immediate adviser to such officer, or the exercise of the constitutional or legal powers, or the execution of the powers set forth in the preceding sentence, of any employee subject to the civil service laws of any State, government, governmental agency or political subdivision.

"commerce" means trade, traffic, commerce, or communication among the several States and any place outside thereof; or among any Territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States in the same State but through a foreign country.

"affecting commerce" means any activity or industry in which a labor organization is engaged in commerce or in which a labor dispute would hinder or obstruct commerce or the free flow of commerce and includes any activity or industry "affecting commerce" within the meaning of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959, and further includes any governmental industry, business, or activity.

(i) The term "State" includes a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Guam, Wake Island, the Canal Zone, and Outer Continental Shelf lands defined in the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act.

(j) The term "religion" includes all aspects of religious observance and practice, as well as belief, unless an employer demonstrates that he is unable to reasonably accommodate to an employee's or prospective employee's religious observance or practice without undue hardship on the conduct of the employer's business.

(k) The terms "because of sex" or "on the basis of sex" include, but are not limited to, because of or on the basis of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions; and women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions shall be treated the same for all employment-related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, as other persons not so affected but similar in their ability or inability to work, and nothing in section 2000e-2(h) of this title shall be interpreted to permit otherwise. This subsection shall not require an employer to pay for health insurance benefits for an abortion, except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term, or except where medical complications have arisen from an abortion: Provided, That nothing herein shall preclude an employer from providing abortion benefits or otherwise affect bargaining agreements in regard to abortion.

Absent congressional indication that a necessary remedy in dealing with racial discrimination in employment should be a federal common-law action for tortious interference with the affirmative action and nondiscrimination covenants in government contracts, building and construction trades council and unions which were voluntary, unincorporated associations lacking capacity to sue or be sued under Missouri law could not be sued by government for tortious interference with performance of such covenants. *U. University's remedies for contractor's alleged noncompliance with equal opportunity clause in contract to construct residence hall were not limited to cancellation of contract and declaration that contractor be declared ineligible for further government contracts, or such other sanctions as could be imposed and remedies invoked as provided by Ex.Ord.No.11246, set out as a note under this section, requiring equal opportunity in federal employment. *Trustees of Tufts College v. ## 65. — Injunctions

In suit for relief for violation of this subchapter and for interference with implementation of Ex.Ord.No.11246, set out as a note under this section, and section 140 of Title 23, in light of historical exclusion of blacks from the locals reentered by nepotism and hiring hall "jump-up" referrals and militant opposition to plan for recruitment, placement and training of minority group members in highway construction industry and to the equal employment opportunities which the plan was striving to achieve, it was immaterial whether defendant locals were signatories to the plan and United States was entitled to appropriate affirmative relief, including permanent injunction prohibiting discriminatory practices. U. S. v. United Broth. of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local 169, C.A.III. 1972, 457 F.2d 210, certiorari denied 93 S.Ct. 63, 409 U.S. 851, 34 L.Ed.2d 84.

tracts, which had shown requisite probability of success on merits for its claim that it had suffered de facto "debarment" or at the very least had established presence of sufficiently serious questions going to merits to make them fair grounds for litigation, which would suffer irreparable injury because of "passover" on one contract and which represented public interest in assuring that government agencies comply with laws or executive orders, was entitled to preliminary injunction enjoining Secretary of Labor and other officials from "passing over" contractor without a hearing. Pan American World Airways, Inc. v. Marshall, D.C.N.Y.1977, 439 F.Supp. 487.

Where evidentiary hearing was necessary to establish facts which were critical to determination of affirmative action plan's constitutional validity, preliminary injunction of operation of plan was denied. Percy v. Brennan, D.C.N.Y.1974, 384 F.Supp. 800.

Even though federal compliance agency after institution of action to require it to disapprove affirmative action programs not complying with Ex.Ord.No.11246, set out as a note under this section, requiring equal employment on part of federal contractors and regulations setting forth requirements of programs realized that its prior approvals of some programs were erroneous and launched a review of approved programs, where there was clear danger that illegal and improper approvals of noncomplying programs would continue unless agency was restrained from repetition of past unlawful review of programs and there was no remedy at law or remedy that could correct agency's actions, injunction would lie to require agency to disapprove any noncomplying program and to restrain agency from approving in the future any noncomplying programs. Legal Aid Soc. of Alameda County v. Brennan, D.C.Cal. 1974, 381 F.Supp. 125.

Requested injunction against racial discrimination by building and construction trades council and unions with regard to union membership, apprenticeship, and training programs and against attempting to cause any employer to discriminate would do no more than eliminate alleged discrimination by the council and unions and would not violate this subchapter prohibiting preferential treatment. U. S. v. Building and Const. Trades Council of St. Louis, Mo., AFL-CIO, D.C.Mo.1968, 271 F.Supp. 447.

66. Review

Contention that Congress acted unconstitutionally in extending coverage of this subchapter to state governments which was not raised in the district court could not be raised on appeal. Donthard v. Rawlinson, Ala.1977, 97 S.Ct. 2720, 433 U.S. 321, 53 L.Ed.2d 786.

Imposition of sanctions on contractor who was unable to meet minority persons hiring goals set by "Revised Philadelphia Plan" of Department of Labor but who has exhibited good faith would be improper and would be subject to judicial review. Contractors Ass'n of Eastern Pa. v. Secretary of Labor, D.C.Pa.1970, 311 F.Supp. 1002, affirmed 442 F.2d 159, certiorari denied 92 S.Ct. 98, 404 U.S. 854, 30 L.Ed.2d 95.

§ 2000e-1. Subchapter not applicable to employment of aliens outside State and individuals for performance of activities of religious corporations, associations, educational institutions, or societies

This subchapter shall not apply to an employer with respect to the employment of aliens outside any State, or to a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society with respect to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities.

As amended, this subchapter proscribes discriminatory preference on the basis of sex by institutions of higher learning in their hiring, compensation, promotion and termination practices with respect to faculty members. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Tufts Ins. of Learning, D.C.Mass.1975, 421 F.Supp. 152.

Employment practices

practices

Employment practice for an employer—

or to discharge any individual, or to refuse to hire any individual with respect to conditions, or privileges of employment on the basis of an individual's race, color, religion, sex, or to classify his employees or applicants in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee, because of such individual's race, color, sex, or national origin.

Agency practices

Employment practice for an employer to refuse to hire or to discharge any individual because of his race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Union practices

Employment practice for a labor organization to refuse to accept membership from its membership, or otherwise to refuse to accept any individual because of his race, color, or national origin;

to classify its membership or applicants in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee, because of such individual's race, color, sex, or national origin.

for employment any individual, in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit such employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee or as an applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, or national origin; or

(3) to cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an individual in violation of this section.

Training programs

(d) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for any employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs to discriminate against any individual because of his race, color, religion, sex, or national origin in admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training.

Businesses or enterprises with personnel qualified on basis of religion, sex, or national origin; educational institutions with personnel of particular religion

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, (1) it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to classify, or refer for employment any individual, for a labor organization to classify its membership or to classify or refer for employment any individual, or for an employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in any such program, on the basis of his religion, sex, or national origin in those certain instances where religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise, and (2) it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for a school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning to hire and employ employees of a particular religion if such school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is, in whole or in substantial part, owned, supported, controlled, or managed by a particular religion or by a particular religious corporation, association, or society, or if the curriculum of such school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is directed toward the propagation of a particular religion.

Members of Communist Party or Communist-action or Communist-front organizations

(f) As used in this subchapter, the phrase "unlawful employment practice" shall not be deemed to include any action or measure taken by an employer, labor organization, joint labor-management committee, or employment agency with respect to an individual who is a member of the Communist Party of the United States or of any other organization required to register as a Communist-action or Communist-front organization by final order of the Subversive Activities Control Board pursuant to the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950.

National security

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to fail or refuse to hire and employ any individual for any position, for an employer to discharge any individual from any position, or for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer any individual for employment in any position, or for a labor organization to fail or refuse to refer any individual for employment in any position, if—

(1) the occupancy of such position, or access to the premises in or upon which any part of the duties of such position is performed or is to be performed, is subject to any requirement imposed in the interest of the national security of the United States under any security program in effect pursuant to or administered under any statute of the United States or any Executive order of the President; and

(2) such individual has not fulfilled or has ceased to fulfill that requirement.

Seniority or merit system; quantity or quality of production; ability tests; compensation based on sex and authorized by minimum wage provisions

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, it shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to apply different standards of compensation, or different terms, conditions, or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who work in different locations, provided that such differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, nor shall it be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to give and to act upon the results of any professionally developed ability test provided that such test, its administration or action upon the results is not designed, intended or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. It shall not be an unlawful employment practice under this subchapter for any employer to differentiate upon the basis of sex in determining the amount of the wages or compensation paid or to be paid to employees of such employer if such differentiation is authorized by the provisions of section 206(d) of Title 29.

Businesses or enterprises extending preferential treatment to Indians

cluding permitting continuation of regular work assignment while not paying union dues or equivalent. Cooper v. General Dynamics, Convair Aerospace Division, Ft. Worth Operation, C.A.Tex. 633 F.2d 163, rehearing denied 637 F.2d 1143, certiorari denied 97 S.Ct. 2312, U.S. 908, 53 L.Ed.2d 1091.

Where only response of union to employee's request that she not be required to pay union dues due to her membership in Seventh-Day Adventist Church was to allow employee to pay dues while foregoing actual membership, this response could not be called accommodation, since union was obligated to extend such consideration to employees, even where union rejected even employer's request for two-week delay in employee's termination, union would be liable to employee under this section for discrimination against her because of religious beliefs. McDaniel v. Essex Intern., Inc., D.C.Mich.1981, 509 F.Supp. 1055.

Employer and union failed to make reasonable effort to accommodate religious beliefs of Seventh Day Adventist employee against supporting or contributing to labor organizations when they failed to accept employee's offer to donate amount of union dues to nonreligious charity in return for waiver of union security clause in collective bargaining agreement. Nottelson v. A. O. Smith Corp., D.C.Wis.1980, 489 F.Supp. 94.

Discharged employee established prima facie case of unlawful discrimination by his former employer and union by showing that, as Seventh Day Adventist, he held sincere belief opposing membership in and contributions to unions and similar organizations, that he notified defendants that such belief prevented him from complying with labor agreement's security clause regarding union membership and payment of dues, and that he offered to contribute sum equal to amount of union dues to nonreligious charity but was discharged from employment due to his refusal to comply with security agreement. Nottelson v. A. O. Smith Corp., D.C.Wis.1979, 481 F.Supp. 756, reconsideration denied and clarified 489 F.Supp. 94.

672. — Other employees affected

Union had no duty to modify seniority rules with respect to shift preference provisions of collective bargaining agreement in order to permit employee to work day shift and thereby observe his religion's Sabbath, such a modification would have been in derogation of contractual rights of other union members, and union's refusal to make such modification neither constituted discrimination

673. — Grievance procedures

Where union promptly filed and properly pursued grievances filed by employee, as far as was possible, and employee did not tell union personnel that he believed his discharge to be the result of religious discrimination, union's failure to assert religious discrimination as a ground for the grievance did not amount to a breach of duty the union owed to employee. Blakely v. Chrysler Corp., D.C.Mo.1975, 407 F.Supp. 1227.

674. — Representation of members

Union was required to fairly represent member when it became aware of fact that he was facing difficulty in scheduling days off for his sabbath and was in danger of disciplinary action by employer as a result. Hardison v. Trans World Airlines, D.C.Mo.1974, 375 F.Supp. 877, af- firmed 527 F.2d 33, reversed on other grounds 97 S.Ct. 2264, 432 U.S. 63, 53 L.Ed.2d 113.

675. Sex discrimination

This subchapter places an affirmative duty upon a labor organization to alleviate sex discrimination in employment; that action must be initiated by the union whether or not a female employee complains to the union of discriminatory conduct. Chrapliwy v. Uniroyal, Inc., D.C.Ind.1977, 458 F.Supp. 252.

Women union members failed to prove their charge that union had caused employer to discriminate against them in violation of this subchapter because they were women. Tuma v. American Can Co., D.C.N.J.1974, 373 F.Supp. 218.

Labor union is under no legal obligation to challenge validity of state laws and regulations regarding employment of women by initiating suit to determine validity of such laws, and failure of union to do so does not constitute violation of this section. Ridinger v. General Motors Corp., D.C.Ohio 1971, 325 F.Supp. 1089, reversed on other grounds 474 F.2d 949.

§ 2000e-3. Other unlawful employment practices

Discrimination for making charges, testifying, assisting, or participating in enforcement proceedings

(a) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against any of his employees or applicants for employment, for an employment agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate against any individual, or for a labor organization to discriminate against any member thereof or applicant for membership, because he has opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice by this subchapter, or because he has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this subchapter.

Printing or publication of notices or advertisements indicating prohibited preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination; occupational qualification exception

(b) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer, labor organization, employment agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to print or publish or cause to be printed or published any notice or advertisement relating to employment by such an employer or membership in or any classification or referral for employment by such a labor organization, or relating to any classification or referral for employment by such an employment agency, or relating to admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training by such a joint labor-management committee, indicating any preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination, based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, except that such a notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on religion, sex, or national origin when religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification for employment.

Historical Note

1972 Amendment. Subsec. (a). Pub.L. 92-261, § 8(c)(1), added provision making it an unlawful employment practice for a joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate against the specified individuals.

Subsec. (b). Pub.L. 92-261, § 8(c)(2), added provisions making prohibitions applicable to joint labor-management committees controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, and notices or advertisements of such joint labor-management committees relating to admission

Because agricultural extension service agent was under no obligation to work in another county after he was "run out" of one county for racial reasons, subsequent action of the state agricultural extension service in firing the agent when he declined to work in another county was in retaliation for his having asserted his right to work free of employment discrimination even though the agricultural extension service had requested the county to raise the agent's salary and had fought termination of county funding. Wells v. Hutchinson, D.C.Tex.1980, 499 F.Supp. 174.

Evidence that plaintiff was discharged from employment with city shortly after employer learned of his protected activities under this subchapter, that city disregarded its established procedures for termination and in fact fabricated the reasons specified for discharge, that employee's calling supervisor a liar occurred privately during heated debate initiated by the supervisor concerning employee's decision to engage in protected activity, and that subordination was not advanced contemporaneously as a reason for discharge established that plaintiff was wrongfully discharged in that his filing of Commission charges was causally related thereto and that legitimate nondiscriminatory reasons for discharge advanced by employer were pretextual. Goodwin v. City of Pittsburgh, D.C.Pa.1979, 480 F.Supp. 627, affirmed 624 F.2d 1000.

Even if original charge of racial discrimination in denial of a promotion was without merit, if black faculty member was terminated because of her participation in filing a discrimination charge with the Commission, she was entitled to relief under this subchapter. *U. Employee who had engaged in protected activities when she filed charges of sex discrimination with the Commission and state agency and who later brought civil action to prosecute claim of sex discrimination, as well as other administrative proceedings, and complained about academic evaluation, and who was given notice of discharge within 6 months of settlement of the civil action and dismissal of the administrative proceedings and about one month after said complaint made out a prima facie case of retaliatory discriminatory discharge. Hochstadt v. Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology, Inc., D.C.Mass.1978, 425 F.Supp. 318, affirmed 545 F.2d 222.

42. Suspension of employees

Ten-day suspension of black railroad employee was not because of racial discrimination or in retaliation against the employee for having filed a charge with the Commission in September of 1967, as the railroad official who investigated train collision and assessed the suspension was not aware that plaintiff had filed a charge, as the company, if it had been "out to get" plaintiff because of the charge would not have waited two and a half years to do so, and as plaintiff's retaliation claim was not reasonably reconcilable with the fact that a white employee received a 15-day suspension in connection with the same collision. Willson v. Woodward Iron Co., D.C.Ala.1973, 342 F.Supp. 886.

43. Defamation of employees

Employer's filing of defamation suit against former employee based solely on employee's having filed a sex discrimination charge against employer was impermissible retaliation. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Virginia Carolina Veneer Corp., D.C.Va.1980, 485 F.Supp. 773.

44. Remedies

Remedial provisions of this section afforded relief to caucasians whom community college decided not to offer part-time employment in retaliation for the caucasians' actions in bringing "reverse discrimination" action in connection with denial of full-time appointments; fact that underlying charge of racial discrimination was decided in favor of the community college was of no consequence to the retaliation claim. Cohen v. Community College of Philadelphia, D.C.Pa.1980, 484 F.Supp. 411.

The fact that this section which prohibits employer retaliation against employees who oppose discriminatory practices does not protect strikes by union members in violation of an existing collective bargaining agreement does not affect the substantive right to be free from employment discrimination; an employee who believes he has been discriminated against retains a number of effective remedies, including filing charges with the Commission and utilizing existing grievance and arbitration machinery to resolve his charges. Kling v. Illinois Bell Tel. Co., D.C.Ill.1978, 478 F.Supp. 495.

This section is an independent remedy and is not confined by procedural or substantive limitations of this subchapter. Hearn v. R. E. Donnelly & Sons Co., D.C.Ill.1978, 460 F.Supp. 546.

45. Sanctions against employers

The filing of charge of discrimination with the Commission is a protected activity and employers must be prevented from interfering with such activity through the use of economic or emotional sanctions. Kinard v. National Supermarkets, Inc., D.C.Ala.1978, 458 F.Supp. 106.

§ 2000e-4. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Creation; composition; political representation; appointment; term; vacancies; Chairman and Vice Chairman; duties of Chairman; appointment of personnel; compensation of personnel

(a) There is hereby created a Commission to be known as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, which shall be composed of five members, not more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party. Members of the Commission shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate for a term of five years. Any individual chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he shall succeed, and all members of the Commission shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed and qualified, except that no such member of the Commission shall continue to serve (1) for more than sixty days when the Congress is in session unless a nomination to fill such vacancy shall have been submitted to the Senate, or (2) after the adjournment sine die of the session of the Senate in which such nomination was submitted. The President shall designate one member to serve as Chairman of the Commission, and one member to serve as Vice Chairman. The Chairman shall be responsible on behalf of the Commission for the administrative operations of the Commission, and, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, shall appoint, in accordance with the provisions of Title 5 governing appointments in the competitive service, such officers, agents, attorneys, administrative law judges, and employees as he deems necessary to assist it in the performance of its functions and to fix their compensation in accordance with the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of Title 5, relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates: Provided, That assignment, removal, and compensation of administrative law judges shall be in accordance with sections 3105, 3344, 5372, and 7521 of Title 5.

General Counsel; appointment; term; duties; representation
by attorneys and Attorney General

(b)(1) There shall be a General Counsel of the Commission appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years. The General Counsel shall have responsibility for the conduct of litigation as provided in sections 2000e-5 and 2000e-6 of this title. The General Counsel shall have such other duties as the Commission may prescribe or as may be provided by law and shall concur with the Chairman of the Commission on the appointment and supervision of regional attorneys. The General Counsel of the Commission on the effective date of this Act shall continue in such position and perform the functions specified in this subsection until a successor is appointed and qualified.

(2) Attorneys appointed under this section may, at the direction of the Commission, appear for and represent the Commission in any case in court, provided that the Attorney General shall conduct all litigation to which the Commission is a party in the Supreme Court pursuant to this subchapter.

Exercise of powers during vacancy; quorum

(c) A vacancy in the Commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the Commission and three members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

Seal; judicial notice

(d) The Commission shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed.

Reports to Congress and President

(e) The Commission shall at the close of each fiscal year report to the Congress and to the President concerning the action it has taken and the moneys it has disbursed. It shall make such further reports on the cause of and means of eliminating discrimination and such recommendations for further legislation as may appear desirable.

in which such nomination was submitted. The Commission shall appoint one member to serve as Chairman and one member to serve as Vice Chairman. The Commission shall have the authority to act on behalf of the Commission for the purpose of this section, and, except as provided in this section, shall appoint, in accordance with the provisions of this section, the 5 governing appointments in the Commission, agents, attorneys, administrative law judges, and such other personnel as the Commission deems necessary to assist it in the performance of its functions and to fix their compensation in accordance with chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 5 of the General Schedule pay plan. Appointment, removal, and compensation of all personnel shall be in accordance with sections 3106 and 5305.

Appointment; terms; duties; representation
Attorneys and Attorney General

The General Counsel of the Commission shall be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Commission for a term of 5 years. The General Counsel shall have the authority to conduct litigation as provided in sections 5301 and 5302 of this title. The General Counsel shall have the authority to represent the Commission and the Commission may prescribe or as may be determined by the Chairman of the Commission the supervision of regional attorneys. The Commission shall, on the effective date of this Act, and thereafter, perform the functions specified in this section and the successor is appointed and qualified.

Under this section may, at the direction of the Commission, appear and represent the Commission in any court and the Attorney General shall conduct all litigation in which the Commission is a party in the Supreme Court.

Members during vacancy; quorum

The Commission shall not impair the right of the Commission to exercise all the powers of the Commission and the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

Seal; judicial notice

The Commission shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed.

Reports to Congress and President

At the close of each fiscal year, the Commission shall submit a report to the President concerning the action it has taken and the amount of money so disbursed. It shall make such further recommendations and means of eliminating discrimination and such other further legislation as may appear desirable.

Principal and other offices

(f) The principal office of the Commission shall be in or near the District of Columbia, but it may meet or exercise any or all its powers at any other place. The Commission may establish such regional or State offices as it deems necessary to accomplish the purpose of this subchapter.

Powers of Commission

(g) The Commission shall have power—

(1) to cooperate with and, with their consent, utilize regional, State, local, and other agencies, both public and private, and individuals;

(2) to pay to witnesses whose depositions are taken or who are summoned before the Commission or any of its agents the same witness and mileage fees as are paid to witnesses in the courts of the United States;

(3) to furnish to persons subject to this subchapter such technical assistance as they may request to further their compliance with this subchapter or an order issued thereunder;

(4) upon the request of (i) any employer, whose employees or some of them, or (ii) any labor organization, whose members or some of them, refuse or threaten to refuse to cooperate in effectuating the provisions of this subchapter, to assist in such effectuation by conciliation or such other remedial action as is provided by this subchapter;

(5) to make such technical studies as are appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this subchapter and to make the results of such studies available to the public;

(6) to intervene in a civil action brought under section 2000e-5 of this title by an aggrieved party against a respondent other than a government, governmental agency or political subdivision.

Cooperation with other departments and agencies in performance of educational or promotional activities

(h) The Commission shall, in any of its educational or promotional activities, cooperate with other departments and agencies in the performance of such educational and promotional activities.

Personnel subject to political activity restrictions

(i) All officers, agents, attorneys, and employees of the Commission shall be subject to the provisions of section 7324 of Title 5, notwithstanding any exemption contained in such section. Note 11

11. Memorandum of understanding

Fact that pursuant to memorandum of understanding for sharing of information between Commission and Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs complaints filed with the Office are to be deemed charges filed with Commission, such does not mean that the Office relinquishes authority over such cases. Emerson Elec. Co. v. Schlesinger, C.A.No.1979, 609 F.2d 898.

12. Actions against Commission

Reinstatement claim of discharged member of Commission was within jurisdiction of grant of this section in view of fact that member relied upon statutory provisions setting forth term of office of members of the Commission and in view of fact that member was bringing action against officers of the United States. Lewis v. Carter, D.C.D.C.1977, 436 F.Supp. 958.

District court was without jurisdiction of suit brought against the Commission and one of its agents by labor union local and its business manager, seeking revocation of subpoena duces tecum; plaintiffs had no remedy but to wait for the Commission to file suit against them, should it choose to do so, to enforce the subpoena. Foreman v. Thalmayer, D.C. Tex.1975, 383 F.Supp. 1396.

13. Disclosure

Government contractor's affirmative action programs and related information required to be furnished the contracting agency were not protected from disclosure to Commission by a qualified privilege for self-evaluative documents since such reports were not prepared solely for internal use or even for external use of only the Defense Supply Agency and Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, which had agreed to exchange information with Commission concerning employers' compliance with antidiscrimination laws; applicable regulation put contractor on notice that required reports also would be used for administration of this subchapter enforcement of which is vested in Commission. Reynolds Metals Co. v. Rumsfeld, C.A.Va.1977, 564 F.2d 663, certiorari denied 98 S.Ct. 1646, 435 U.S. 995, 56 L.Ed.2d 84.

14. Injunction

In action in which former member of Commission sought reinstatement, former member failed to sufficiently demonstrate that Commission had necessary legislative or judicial functions to be immune from President's removal power, and therefore probability of success on the merits was not so certain as to render less important the remaining factors to be considered on motion for preliminary injunction. Lewis v. Carter, D.C.D.C.1977, 436 F.Supp. 958.

Power of Commission to prevent unlawful employment practices

(a) The Commission is empowered, as hereinafter provided, to prevent any person from engaging in any unlawful employment practice as set forth in section 2000e-2 or 2000e-3 of this title.

Charges by persons aggrieved or member of Commission of unlawful employment practices by employers, etc.; filing; allegations; notice to respondent; contents of notice; investigation by Commission; contents of charges; prohibition on disclosure of charges; determination of reasonable cause; conference, conciliation, and persuasion for elimination of unlawful practices; prohibition on disclosure of informal endeavors to end unlawful practices; use of evidence in subsequent proceedings; penalties for disclosure of information; time for determination of reasonable cause

(b) Whenever a charge is filed by or on behalf of a person claiming to be aggrieved, or by a member of the Commission, alleging that an employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, has engaged in an unlawful employment practice, the Commission shall serve a notice of the charge (including the date, place and circumstances of the alleged unlawful employment practice) on such em-

Charges shall be in writing under oath or affirmation and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Commission requires. Charges shall not be made public by the Commission. If the Commission determines after such investigation that there is not reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true, it shall dismiss the charge and promptly notify the person claiming to be aggrieved and the respondent of its action. In determining whether reasonable cause exists, the Commission shall accord substantial weight to final findings and orders made by State or local authorities in proceedings commenced under State or local law pursuant to the requirements of subsections (c) and (d) of this section. If the Commission determines after such investigation that there is reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true, the Commission shall endeavor to eliminate any such alleged unlawful employment practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Nothing said or done during and as a part of such informal endeavors may be made public by the Commission, its officers or employees, or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding without the written consent of the persons concerned. Any person who makes public information in violation of this subsection shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. The Commission shall make its determination on reasonable cause as promptly as possible and, so far as practicable, not later than one hundred and twenty days from the filing of the charge or, where applicable under subsection (c) or (d) of this section, from the date upon which the Commission is authorized to take action with respect to the charge.

State or local enforcement proceedings; notification of State or local authority; time for filing charges with Commission; commencement of proceedings

(c) In the case of an alleged unlawful employment practice occurring in a State, or political subdivision of a State, which has a State or local law prohibiting the unlawful employment practice alleged and establishing or authorizing a State or local authority to grant or seek relief from such practice or to institute criminal proceedings with respect thereto upon receiving notice thereof, no charge may be filed under subsection (b) of this section by the person aggrieved before the expiration of sixty days after proceedings have been commenced under the State or local law, unless such proceedings have been earlier terminated, provided that such sixty-day period shall be extended to one hundred and twenty days during the first year after the effective date of such State or local law. If any requirement for the commencement of such proceedings is imposed by a State or local authority other than a requirement of the filing of a written and signed statement of the facts upon which the proceeding is based, the proceeding shall be deemed to have been commenced for the purposes of this subsection at the time such statement is sent by registered mail to the appropriate State or local authority.

State or local enforcement proceedings; notification of State or local authority; time for action on charges by Commission

(d) In the case of any charge filed by a member of the Commission alleging an unlawful employment practice occurring in a State or political subdivision of a State which has a State or local law prohibiting the practice alleged and establishing or authorizing a State or local authority to grant or seek relief from such practice or to institute criminal proceedings with respect thereto upon receiving notice thereof, the Commission shall, before taking any action with respect to such charge, notify the appropriate State or local officials and, upon request, afford them a reasonable time, but not less than sixty days (provided that such sixty-day period shall be extended to one hundred and twenty days during the first year after the effective day of such State or local law), unless a shorter period is requested, to act under such State or local law to remedy the practice alleged.

Time for filing charges; time for service of notice of charge on respondent; filing of charge by Commission with State or local agency

(e) A charge under this section shall be filed within one hundred and eighty days after the alleged unlawful employment practice occurred and notice of the charge (including the date, place and circumstances of the alleged unlawful employment practice) shall be served upon the person against whom such charge is made within ten days thereafter, except that in a case of an unlawful employment practice with respect to which the person aggrieved has initially instituted proceedings with a State or local agency with authority to grant or seek relief from such practice or to institute criminal proceedings with respect thereto upon receiving notice thereof, such charge shall be filed by or on behalf of the person aggrieved within three hundred days after the alleged unlawful employment practice occurred, or within thirty days after receiving notice that the State or local agency has terminated the proceedings under the State or local law, whichever is earlier, and a copy of such charge shall be filed by the Commission with the State or local agency.

Civil action by Commission, Attorney General, or person aggrieved; proceedings; procedure; appointment of attorney; payment of fees, costs, or security; intervention; stay of Federal proceedings; action for appropriate temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of charge; jurisdiction and venue of United States courts; designation of judge to hear and determine case; assignment of case for hearing; expedition of case; appointment of master reference under subsection (c) or (d) of this section, the Commission has been unable to secure from the respondent a conciliation agreement acceptable to the Commission, the Commission may bring a civil action against any respondent not a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision named in the charge. In the case of a respondent which is a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision, if the Commission has been unable to secure from the respondent a conciliation agreement acceptable to the Commission, the Commission shall take no further action and shall refer the case to the Attorney General who may bring a civil action against such respondent in the appropriate United States district court. The person or persons aggrieved shall have the right to intervene in a civil action brought by the Commission or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision. If a charge filed with the Commission pursuant to subsection (b) of this section is dismissed by the Commission, or if within one hundred and eighty days from the filing of such charge or the expiration of any period of reference under subsection (c) or (d) of this section, whichever is later, the Commission has not filed a civil action under this section or the Attorney General has not filed a civil action in a case involving a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision, or the Commission has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the person aggrieved is a party, the Commission, or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision, shall so notify the person aggrieved and within ninety days after the giving of such notice a civil action may be brought against the respondent named in the charge (A) by the person claiming to be aggrieved or (B) if such charge was filed by a member of the Commission, by any person whom the charge alleges was aggrieved by the alleged unlawful employment practice. Upon application by the complainant and in such circumstances as the court may deem just, the court may appoint an attorney for such complainant and may authorize the commencement of the action without the payment of fees, costs, or security. Upon timely application, the court may, in its discretion, permit the Commission, or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision, to intervene in such civil action upon certification that the case is of general public importance. Upon request, the court may, in its discretion, stay further proceedings for not more than sixty days pending the termination of State or local proceedings described in subsection (c) or (d) of this section or further efforts of the Commission to obtain voluntary compliance.

(2) Whenever a charge is filed with the Commission and the Commission concludes on the basis of a preliminary investigation that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, the Commission, or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision, may bring an action for appropriate temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of such charge. Any temporary restraining order or other order granting preliminary or temporary relief shall be issued in accordance with rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. It shall be the duty of a court having jurisdiction over proceedings under this section to assign cases for hearing at the earliest practicable date and to cause such cases to be in every way expedited.

(3) Each United States district court and each United States court of a place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States shall have jurisdiction of actions brought under this subchapter. Such an action may be brought in any judicial district in the State in which the unlawful employment practice is alleged to have been committed, in the judicial district in which the employment records relevant to such practice are maintained and administered, or in the judicial district in which the aggrieved person would have worked but for the alleged unlawful employment practice, but if the respondent is not found within any such district, such an action may be brought within the judicial district in which the respondent has his principal office. For purposes of sections 1404 and 1406 of Title 28, the judicial district in which the respondent has his principal office shall in all cases be considered a district in which the action might have been brought.

(4) It shall be the duty of the chief judge of the district (or in his absence, the acting chief judge) in which the case is pending immediately to designate a judge in such district to hear and determine the case. In the event that no judge in the district is available to hear and determine the case, the chief judge of the district, or the acting chief judge, as the case may be, shall certify this fact to the chief judge of the circuit (or in his absence, the acting chief judge) who shall then designate a district or circuit judge of the circuit to hear and determine the case.

(5) It shall be the duty of the judge designated pursuant to this subsection to assign the case for hearing at the earliest practicable date and to cause the case to be in every way expedited. If such judge has not scheduled the case for trial within one hundred and twenty days after issue has been joined, that judge may appoint a master pursuant to rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Injunctions; appropriate affirmative action; equitable relief; accrual of back pay; reduction of back pay; limitations on judicial orders

(g) If the court finds that the respondent has intentionally engaged in or is intentionally engaging in an unlawful employment practice charged in the complaint, the court may enjoin the respondent from engaging in such unlawful employment practice, and order such affirmative action as may be appropriate, which may include, but is not limited to, reinstatement or hiring of employees, with or without back pay (payable by the employer, employment agency, or labor organization, as the case may be, responsible for

Back pay liability shall not accrue from a date more than two years prior to the filing of a charge with the Commission. Interim earnings or amounts earnable with reasonable diligence by the person or persons discriminated against shall operate to reduce the back pay otherwise allowable. No order of the court shall require the admission or reinstatement of an individual as a member of a union, or the hiring, reinstatement, or promotion of an individual as an employee, or the payment to him of any back pay, if such individual was refused admission, suspended, or expelled, or was refused employment or advancement or was suspended or discharged for any reason other than discrimination on account of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin or in violation of section 2000e-3(a) of this title.

Provisions of sections 101 to 115 of Title 29 not applicable to civil actions for prevention of unlawful practices

(h) The provisions of sections 101 to 115 of Title 29 shall not apply with respect to civil actions brought under this section.

Proceedings by Commission to compel compliance with judicial orders

(i) In any case in which an employer, employment agency, or labor organization fails to comply with an order of a court issued in a civil action brought under this section, the Commission may commence proceedings to compel compliance with such order.

Appeals

(j) Any civil action brought under this section and any proceedings brought under subsection (i) of this section shall be subject to appeal as provided in sections 1291 and 1292, Title 28.

Attorney's fee; liability of Commission and United States for costs

(k) In any action or proceeding under this subchapter the court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party, other than the Commission or the United States, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs, and the Commission and the United States shall be liable for costs the same as a private person.

47 Stat. 72, and were repealed by Act June 25, 1948, c. 645, § 21, 62 Stat. 962. The provisions of section 111 are now covered by section 3692 of Title 18, Crimes and Criminal Procedure, and the provisions of section 112 are now covered by rule 42, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Title 18.

Codification. Subsection (b) of this section, referred to in subsec. (c), was in the original a reference to subsection (a) of this section, and has been editorially changed to subsection (b) of this section to conform to the redesignation of subsection (a) by Pub.L. 92-261.

1972 Amendment. Subsec. (a). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), added subsec. (a). Former subsec. (a) was redesignated (b) and amended.

Subsec. (b). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), redesignated former subsec. (a) as (b) and, as so redesignated, modified the procedure for the filing and consideration of charges by the Commission, subjected to coverage unlawful employment practices of joint labor-management committees controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, required the Commission to accord substantial weight to final findings and orders made by State or local authorities in proceedings commenced under State or local law in its determination of reasonable cause, and added the provision setting forth the time period, after charges have been filed, allowed to the Commission to determine reasonable cause. Former subsec. (b) was redesignated (c).

Subsec. (c). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), redesignated former subsec. (b) as (c). Former subsec. (c) was redesignated (d).

Subsec. (d). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), redesignated former subsec. (c) as (d). Former subsec. (d) was redesignated (e).

Subsec. (e). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), redesignated former subsec. (d) as (e) and, as so redesignated, extended from ninety to one hundred and eighty days after the occurrence of the alleged unlawful employment practice the time for filing charges under this section and from two hundred and ten to three hundred days the time for filing such charges where the person aggrieved initially instituted proceedings with a State or local agency, and added the requirement that notice of the charge be served on the respondent within ten days after filing. Former subsec. (e) was redesignated (f)(1).

Subsec. (f). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), redesignated former subsec. (e) as par. (1) and, as so redesignated, substituted provisions setting forth the procedure for civil actions where the Commission was unable to secure from the respondents a conciliation agreement to prevent further unlawful employment practices for provisions setting forth the procedure for civil actions where the Commission was unable to obtain voluntary compliance with this subchapter and added provisions setting forth the procedure for civil action where the respondent is a government, governmental agency, or political subdivision and the Commission could not secure a conciliation agreement, added par. (2), redesignated former subsec. (f) as par. (3), and, as so redesignated, substituted "aggrieved person" for "plaintiff", and added pars. (4) and (5).

Subsec. (g). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(a), added provisions which authorized the court to order affirmative action not limited solely to the enumerated affirmative acts and such other equitable relief as deemed appropriate, and provisions which set forth the accrual date for back pay.

Subsec. (i). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(b)(1), substituted "this section" for "subsection (e) of this section".

Subsec. (j). Pub.L. 92-261, § 4(b)(2), substituted "this section" for "subsection (e) of this section".

Effective Date of 1972 Amendment. Section 14 of Pub.L. 92-261 provided that: "The amendments made by this Act to section 706 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 [this section] shall be applicable with respect to charges pending with the Commission on the date of enactment of this Act [Mar. 24, 1972] and all charges filed thereafter."

Effective Date. Section effective one year after July 2, 1964, see section 716 of Pub.L. 88-352, set out as an Effective Date note under section 2000e of this title.

Legislative History. For legislative history and purpose of Pub.L. 88-352, see 1964 U.S. Code Cong. and Adm. News, p. 2355. See, also, Pub.L. 92-261, 1972 U.S. Code Cong. and Adm. News, p. 2137.

§ 2000e-6. Civil actions by Attorney General

Complaint

(a) Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of any of the rights secured by this subchapter, and that the pattern or practice is of such a nature and is intended to deny the full exercise of the rights herein described, the Attorney General may bring a civil action in the appropriate district court of the United States by filing with it a complaint (1) signed by him (or in his absence the Acting Attorney General), (2) setting forth facts pertaining to such pattern or practice, and (3) requesting such relief, including an application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order or other order against the person or persons responsible for such pattern or practice, as he deems necessary to insure the full enjoyment of the rights herein described.

Jurisdiction; three-judge district court for cases of general public importance; hearing, determination, expedition of action, review by Supreme Court; single-judge district court: hearing, determination, expedition of action

(b) The district courts of the United States shall have and shall exercise jurisdiction of proceedings instituted pursuant to this section, and in any such proceeding the Attorney General may file with the clerk of such court a request that a court of three judges be convened to hear and determine the case. Such request by the Attorney General shall be accompanied by a certificate that, in his opinion, the case is of general public importance. A copy of the certificate and request for a three-judge court shall be immediately furnished by such clerk to the chief judge of the circuit (or in his absence, the presiding circuit judge of the circuit) in which the case is pending. Upon receipt of such request it shall be the duty of the chief judge of the circuit or the presiding circuit judge, as the case may be, to designate immediately three judges in such circuit, of whom at least one shall be a circuit judge and another of whom shall be a district judge of the court in which the proceeding was instituted, to hear and determine such case, and it shall be the duty of the judges so designated to assign the case for hearing at the earliest practicable date, to participate in the hearing and determination thereof, and to cause the case to be in every way expedited. An appeal from the final judgment of such court will lie to the Supreme Court.

In the event the Attorney General fails to file such a request in any such proceeding, it shall be the duty of the chief judge of the district (or in his absence, the acting chief judge) in which the case is pending immediately to designate a judge in such district to hear and determine the case. In the event that no judge in the district is available to hear and determine the case, the chief judge of the district, or the acting chief judge, as the case may be, shall certify this fact to the chief judge of the circuit (or in his absence, the acting chief judge) who shall then designate a district or circuit judge of the circuit to hear and determine the case.

It shall be the duty of the judge designated pursuant to this section to assign the case for hearing at the earliest practicable date and to cause the case to be in every way expedited.

Transfer of functions, etc., to Commission; effective date; prerequisite to transfer; execution of functions by Commission

(c) Effective two years after March 24, 1972, the functions of the Attorney General under this section shall be transferred to the Commission, together with such personnel, property, records, and unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, and other funds employed, used, held, available, or to be made available in connection with such functions unless the President submits, and neither House of Congress vetoes, a reorganization plan pursuant to chapter 9 of Title 5, inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection. The Commission shall carry out such functions in accordance with subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

Transfer of functions, etc., not to affect suits commenced pursuant to this section prior to date of transfer

(d) Upon the transfer of functions provided for in subsection (c) of this section, in all suits commenced pursuant to this section prior to the date of such transfer, proceedings shall continue without abatement, all court orders and decrees shall remain in effect, and the Commission shall be substituted as a party for the United States of America, the Attorney General, or the Acting Attorney General, as appropriate.

CIVIL RIGHTS 42 § 2000e-6

Investigation and action by Commission pursuant to filing of charge of discrimination; procedure

(c) Subsequent to March 24, 1972, the Commission shall have authority to investigate and act on a charge of a pattern or practice of discrimination, whether filed by or on behalf of a person claiming to be aggrieved or by a member of the Commission. All such actions shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 2000e-5 of this title.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 12068

June 30, 1978, 43 F.R. 28971

TRANSFER OF CERTAIN FUNCTIONS TO ATTORNEY GENERAL

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including Section 9 of Reorganization Plan Number 1 of 1978 (43 FR 19907) [set out as a note under section 2000e-4 of this title], in order to clarify the Attorney General's authority to initiate public sector litigation under Section 707 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. 2000e-6) [this section], it is ordered as follows:

as a note under section 2000e-4 of this title) shall become effective on July 1, 1978.

1-102. The functions transferred to the Attorney General by Section 5 of Reorganization Plan Number 1 of 1978 [set out as a note under section 2000e-4 of this title] shall, consistent with Section 707 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended [this section], be performed in accordance with Department of Justice procedures heretofore followed under Section 707.

Mandamus 4
Purpose 1
Validity of particular state laws 3

This section is intended to save those state laws which aim at preventing employment discrimination and not state laws which purport to require what is an unlawful employment practice under this subchapter. LeBlanc v. Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., D.C.La.1971, 333 F.Supp. 602, affirmed 460 F.2d 1228, certiorari denied 93 S.Ct. 320, 400 U.S. 990, 34 L.Ed.2d 257.

1. Purpose

In enacting this subchapter, Congress disclaimed any general preemptive intent and Ark.Stats. § 81-601 requiring overtime pay to female employees who worked in excess of eight hours per day could be declared invalid only if it was in conflict with this subchapter. Hays v. Potlatch Forests, Inc., C.A.Ark.1972, 465 F.2d 1081.

Congress by passage of this subchapter intended to supersede all provisions of state law which require or permit doing of an act which constitutes unlawful employment practice under this subchapter or which are inconsistent with any purpose of this subchapter. Ridinger v. General Motors Corp., D.C. Ohio 1971, 325 F.Supp. 1089, reversed on other grounds 474 F.2d 949.

Neither this subchapter nor Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, section 201 et seq. of Title 29, have preempted state regulation or imposition of state remedies for employment practice violations arising out of same circumstances. Davis v. Jobs For Progress, Inc., D.C.Ariz.1976, 427 F.Supp. 479.

Purpose of this section is to insure preservation of state laws which parallel this subchapter in prohibiting employment discrimination. Local 246, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO v.

CIVIL RIGHTS

42 § 2000e-7

Southern California Edison Co., D.C.Cal. 1970, 430 F.Supp. 1262.

This subchapter was not intended to... or limit application of state... legislative. Weeks v. Southern Tel. & Tel. Co., D.C.Ga.1967, 277 F.2d 117, affirmed in part, reversed in part on other grounds 408 F.2d 228.

This section specifying that nothing in this subchapter shall be deemed to exempt or relieve any person from any liability, duty, penalty or punishment provided by state law other than a law purporting to require or permit the doing of any act which would be an unlawful employment practice under this subchapter was designed to preserve effectiveness of state antidiscrimination laws and was not intended to preserve female protective laws. Jones Metal Products Co. v. Walker, 1972, 281 N.E.2d 1, 29 Ohio St.2d 173.

2. Generally

This subchapter envisions coexistence of state and federal remedies when the two are compatible; while deferral to state authority is authorized by this subchapter in certain employment discrimination cases, State's generalized concern for prevention of torts and its provision of judicial remedies simply to that end warrants neither preliminary deferral nor displacement of this subchapter coverage. Shehadeh v. Chesapeake and Potomac Tel. Co. of Maryland, 1978, 595 F.2d 711, 193 U.S.App.D.C. 326.

State protective statute does not present a per se exception to the presumption that retroactive relief in the form of back pay should be paid to victims of unlawful discrimination but is a factor to weigh in the decision. Kreitner v. Bendix Corp., D.C.Mich.1980, 501 F.Supp. 415.

Section 2000e-5 of this title giving district courts jurisdiction over actions brought by aggrieved persons alleging employment discrimination does not establish district court jurisdiction over suits to declare state statutes invalid under the preemption provision. Wiggins Inc. v. Fruchtman, D.C.N.Y.1979, 482 F.Supp. 681, affirmed 628 F.2d 1346.

Although United States Supreme Court has construed federal antidiscrimination law as not requiring inclusion of pregnancy-related disabilities in a disability plan, giving a contrary interpretation to similar state statutes would not require the doing of any act which would be an unlawful employment practice under federal law. Massachusetts Elec. Co. v. Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, Mass.1978, 375 N.E.2d 1192.

Though federal court decisions under this subchapter are not controlling in construing state's acts against discrimination, such decisions are of persuasive precedential value. McCabe v. Johnson County, Bd. of County Com'rs, Kan.App. 1980, 615 P.2d 780.

3. Validity of particular state laws

Michigan female protective statute provides no defense to an action under this subchapter. Kreitner v. Bendix Corp., D.C.Mich.1980, 501 F.Supp. 415.

Employer would be immune from liability under this subchapter for back pay for denial of rights of women to equal opportunity with men to earn overtime pay during period that state statute limited working hours of women in manufacturing or mechanical establishments, if employer made bona fide decision to comply with state statute in reliance on interpretation of Commission that state protective laws regarding women were unaffected by and constituted exceptions to federal law. Stryker v. Register Pub. Co., D.C.Conn.1976, 423 F.Supp. 476.

West's Ann.Cal.Labor Code, §§ 1197.5, 1350, 1350.5, relating to maximum hours and overtime pay for female employees, and California Industrial Welfare Commission's order regulating employment and compensation of women are in conflict with this section and are therefore invalid. Homemakers, Inc., of Los Angeles v. Division of Indus. Welfare, D.C.Cal.1973, 356 F.Supp. 1111, affirmed 509 F.2d 20, certiorari denied 96 S.Ct. 803, 423 U.S. 1063, 46 L.Ed.2d 655.

State regulation requiring rest breaks for women was contrary to objectives of this subchapter and was preempted by provisions of this subchapter by virtue of U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 6, cl. 2. Burns v. Rohr Corp., D.C.Cal.1972, 346 F.Supp. 994.

V.A.M.S. § 290.040 limiting working hours of female employees in certain industries, including transportation and common carrier industries, to nine hours per day and 54 hours per week violated provisions of this subchapter. Vogel v. Trans World Airlines, D.C.Mo.1971, 346 F.Supp. 805.

To extent that R.C. §§ 4107.43, 4107.46 restricting and regulating employment of females in workshops and factories of state were in conflict with this subchapter, they conflicted with and were superseded by this subchapter and, by virtue of U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 6, cl. 2, were void and of no force and effect. Riddinger v. General Motors Corp., D.C.Ohio 1971, 325 F.Supp. 1069, reversed on other grounds 474 F.2d 949.

42 § 2000e-7 PUBLIC HEALTH & WELFARE Ch. 21

43 P.S. §§ 103 et seq., 951 et seq., insofar as they regulate hours of employment of females, conflict with this subchapter and, under U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 6, cl. 2, this subchapter prevails; thus, failure to hire or promote females, to positions for which they are otherwise qualified, on basis of sex is a violation of this subchapter, despite any provision of Pennsylvania law regulating hours of work of women. Kober v. Westinghouse Elec. Corp., D.C.Pa.1971, 325 F.Supp. 467, affirmed 490 F.2d 240.

West's Ann.Labor Code, § 1251, against requesting or permitting any female employee to lift over 50 pounds is not valid under section 2000e-2 of this title since sex was not a bona fide occupational qualification for weight-lifting restriction within exception to that section's general prohibition against discrimination on the basis of sex, and such section 1251 was invalid under U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 6, cl. 2. Local 246, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO v. Southern California Edison Co., D.C.Cal.1970, 320 F.Supp. 1262.

Ark.Stats. § 81-601 forbidding hiring of workman for particular job or under certain conditions cannot stand in face of section 2000e-2 of this title providing that she must be hired for that job or in those conditions if she is otherwise qualified and wants to do the work. Potlatch Forests, Inc. v. Hays, D.C.Ark.1970, 318 F.Supp. 1368, affirmed 465 F.2d 1061.

S.H.A. ch. 48, § 5-8.1, was repugnant to this subchapter and void and of no force and effect as to each of the plaintiff employers where such section 5-8.1 required each employer to discriminate against individual employees with respect to compensation, terms, conditions and privileges of employment because of their sex, where it also required each employer to limit, segregate and classify its employees so as to deprive such employees of employment opportunities because of their sex, and where, in addition such section 5-8.1 set unreasonably low standards for employment of women. Caterpillar Tractor Co. v. Grabiec, D.C.Ill.1970, 317 F.Supp. 1304.

West's Ann.Bus. & Prof.Code, § 25654, regulating an incident of the retail sale of liquor, namely, sex of persons mixing and selling it, by making it a misdemeanor to employ certain female bartenders falls within exclusive powers of states to regulate distribution and sale of liquor within their borders, insulated by U.S.C.A.Const. Amend. 21 from restrictions of U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 1, § 8, cl. 3, and, therefore, cannot be invalidated by this subchapter, assuming a conflict with same. Krauss v. Sacramento Inn, D.C.Cal.1970, 314 F.Supp. 171.

West's Ann.Labor Code, §§ 1250-1253, limiting hours of work for women does not violate this subchapter if there is rational basis dependent upon other factors than sex for treating women differently than men. Mengelkoch v. Industrial Welfare Commission, D.C.Cal.1968, 284 F.Supp. 956, appeal dismissed 89 S.Ct. 60, 393 U.S. 83, 21 L.Ed.2d 215, rehearing denied 89 S.Ct. 443, 393 U.S. 993, 21 L.Ed.2d 458.

Enforcement of R.C. §§ 4107.42, 4107.43, 4107.46, requiring employers to provide seats, lunchroom facilities and meal periods for female employees and compelling employers to refuse to employ a female at specified occupations or in excess of specified number of hours against an employer engaged in industry affecting interstate commerce who employs 25 or more employees for each working day in each of 20 or more calendar weeks is inconsistent with principle of nondiscrimination contained in section 2000e-2 of this title; thus, R.C. §§ 4107.42, 4107.43, 4107.46 are preempted by virtue of U.S.C.A.Const. Art. 6, cl. 2, and implementing and penalty provisions of R.C. §§ 4107.48, 4107.49 are of no further force and effect. Jones Metal Products Co. v. Walker, 1972, 281 N.E.2d 1, 29 Ohio St.2d 173.

4. Mandamus

Whether this subchapter or section 206 of Title 29, requires employers to bring male employees up to minimum standards which state law fixes for female workers is interpretive and enforcement problem for federal agencies and not for court in mandamus action to compel enforcement of orders of Industrial Welfare Commission. Rivera v. Division of Industrial Welfare, 1968, 71 Cal.Rptr. 739, 265 C.A.2d 576.

son being investigated or proceeded against that relates to unlawful employment practices covered by this subchapter and is relevant to the charge under investigation.

Cooperation with State and local agencies administering State fair employment practices laws; participation in and contribution to research and other projects; utilization of services; payment in advance or reimbursement; agreements and rescission of agreements

(b) The Commission may cooperate with State and local agencies charged with the administration of State fair employment practices laws and, with the consent of such agencies, may, for the purpose of carrying out its functions and duties under this subchapter and within the limitation of funds appropriated specifically for such purpose, engage in and contribute to the cost of research and other projects of mutual interest undertaken by such agencies, and utilize the services of such agencies and their employees, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, pay by advance or reimbursement such agencies and their employees for services rendered to assist the Commission in carrying out this subchapter. In furtherance of such cooperative efforts, the Commission may enter into written agreements with such State or local agencies and such agreements may include provisions under which the Commission shall refrain from processing a charge in any cases or class of cases specified in such agreements or under which the Commission shall relieve any person or class of persons in such State or locality from requirements imposed under this section. The Commission shall rescind any such agreement whenever it determines that the agreement no longer serves the interest of effective enforcement of this subchapter.

Execution, retention, and preservation of records; reports to Commission;
training program records; appropriate relief from regulation or order for undue hardship; procedure for exemption; judicial action to compel compliance

(c) Every employer, employment agency, and labor organization subject to this subchapter shall (1) make and keep such records relevant to the determinations of whether unlawful employment prac-

for such periods, and (3) make such reports therefrom as the Commission shall prescribe by regulation or order, after public hearing, as reasonable, necessary, or appropriate for the enforcement of this subchapter or the regulations or orders thereunder. The Commission shall, by regulation, require each employer, labor organization, and joint labor-management committee subject to this subchapter which controls an apprenticeship or other training program to maintain such records as are reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this subchapter, including, but not limited to, a list of ap-nish to the Commission upon request, a detailed description of the manner in which persons are selected to participate in the apprenticeship or other training program. Any employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee which believes that the application to it of any regulation or order issued under this section would result in undue hardship may apply to the Commission for an exemption from the application of such regulation or order, and, if such application for an exemption is denied, bring a civil action in the United States district court for the district where such records are kept. If the Commission or the court, as the case may be, finds that the application of the regulation or order to the employer, employment agency, or labor organization in question would impose an undue hardship, the Commission or the court, as the case may be, may grant appropriate relief. If any person required to comply with the provisions of this subsection fails or refuses to do so, the United States district court for the district in which such person is found, resides, or transacts business, shall, upon application of the Commission, or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, governmental agency or political subdivision, have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring him to comply.

Consultation and coordination between Commission and interested State and Federal agencies in prescribing recordkeeping and reporting requirements; availability of information furnished pursuant to recordkeeping and reporting requirements; conditions on availability

(d) In prescribing requirements pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, the Commission shall consult with other interested State and Federal agencies and shall endeavor to coordinate its requirements with those adopted by such agencies. The Commission shall furnish upon request and without cost to any State or local agency charged with the administration of a fair employment practice law information obtained pursuant to subsection (c) of this section from any employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee subject to the jurisdiction of such agency. Such information shall be furnished on condition that it not be made public by the recipient agency prior to the institution of a proceeding under State or local law involving such information. If this condition is violated by a recipient agency, the Commission may decline to honor subsequent requests pursuant to this subsection.

Prohibited disclosures; penalties

(e) It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the Commission to make public in any manner whatever any information obtained by the Commission pursuant to its authority under this section prior to the institution of any proceeding under this subchapter involving such information. Any officer or employee of the Commission who shall make public in any manner whatever any information in violation of this subsection shall be guilty of a misde-

Historical Note

1972 Amendment. Subsec. (b). Pub.L. 92-261 added provisions authorizing the Commission to engage in and contribute to the cost of research and other projects undertaken by State and local agencies and provisions authorizing the Commission to make advance payments to State and local agencies and their employees for services rendered to the Commission, and struck out provisions relating to agreements between the Commission and State and local agencies prohibiting private civil actions under section 2000e-5 of this title in specified cases.

ordination between Federal and State agencies in prescribing recordkeeping and reporting requirements pursuant to subsec. (c) of this section, and authorizing the Commission to furnish information obtained pursuant to subsec. (c) of this section to interested State and local agencies, for provisions exempting from recordkeeping and reporting requirements employers, etc., required to keep records and make reports under State or local fair employment practice laws, except for the maintenance of notations by such employers, etc., which reflect the differences in coverage or enforcement between State or local laws and the provisions of this subchapter, and dispensing with recordkeeping and reporting requirements where the employer reports under some Executive Order prescribing fair employment practices for Government contractors or subcontractors.

Subsec. (c). Pub.L. 92-261 struck out "Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section," preceding "every employer, employment agency, and labor organization subject to this subchapter shall (1)", required the party seeking an exemption to bring an action in the district court only after the Commission denied the application for the exemption, and added provision which authorized the Commission, or the Attorney General in a case involving a government, etc., to apply for a court order compelling compliance with the recordkeeping and reporting obligations set out in this subsection.

Union was subject to discovery with respect to investigation of unlawful employment practices by employer notwithstanding named in charge filed with Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. MacMillan Electric Inc., C.A. Ohio 1974, 803 F.2d 1071.

In its investigatory role, Commission is entitled to require party to disclose relevant information concerning the discriminatory practice. Circle K Inc. v. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, C.A.N.M. 1972, 803 F.2d 1071.

Under this subchapter, the person has a right to obtain any evidence concerning any person being investigated that is in the possession of any matter under investigation. Donnell Douglas Corp. v. Marshall, Mo. 1978, 465 F.Supp. 22.

12. — Subpoenas

In employment sex discrimination proceeding brought by Commission, court properly refused to enforce Commission investigative subpoena to employer to produce its current "Report" where such report was in Commission's possession. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Packard Elec. Division, General Corp., C.A. Miss. 1978, 500 F.2d 315.

Reasonable cause for finding of this section need not be established before administrative subpoena is validly issued; rather, it is function of such investigative subpoenas to determine whether reasonable cause to bring discrimination charge exists. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Chrysler Corp., C.A. Mo. 1977, 587 F.2d 1071.

Prohibition against searches and seizures under U.S. Const. Amend. 4, did not preclude enforcement of commission subpoena directing university to produce records, papers, involving personal, private, confidential matters, in investigation of charge of discrimination against professor pursuant to provisions of section proscribing any officer or employee of commission from making any information obtained in investigation. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico, C.A.N.M. 504 F.2d 1296.

The cost to university of compliance with subpoena issued by the Commission in connection with investigation of charge of unlawful discrimination against female faculty employees was not such as to excuse compliance with subpoenas as burdensome as long as information requested was relevant and material. Equal Employment Opportunity v. University of Pittsburgh, D.C. Pa. 1980, 487 F.2d 1071.

Commission, in subpoena issued in support of proceedings against employer on employee's allegation of employment discrimination through retaliatory references, was entitled to require production of documents concerning sex and race discrimination; such information was relevant for purpose of showing whether employer had practice of retaliating against any person who filed employment discrimination charge. Equal Employment ment Opportunity Com'n v. U. S. Fidelity & Guaranty Co., D.C. Md. 1976, 414 F.Supp. 227.

13. Costs

Even though this subchapter did not explicitly provide for awarding of costs when United States was prevailing party, inasmuch as it did not prohibit such an award, court did not err in awarding costs to United States which successively sued state to enforce compliance with statutes and regulations of Commission relating to filing reports furnishing race, national origin, and sex of employees in various job categories. U. S. v. State of N. H., C.A.N.H. 1978, 539 F.2d 277, certiorari denied 97 S.Ct. 641, 429 U.S. 1023, 50 L.Ed.2d 625.

§ 2000e-9. Conduct of hearings and investigations pursuant to section 161 of Title 29

For the purpose of all hearings and investigations conducted by the Commission or its duly authorized agents or agencies, section 161 of Title 29 shall apply.

Pub.L. 88-352, Title VII, § 710, July 2, 1964, 78 Stat. 264; Pub.L. 92-261, § 7, Mar. 24, 1972, 86 Stat. 109.

Historical Note

1972 Amendment. Pub.L. 92-261 substituted provisions making applicable section 161 of Title 29 to all hearings and investigations conducted by the Commission or its authorized agents or agencies, for provisions enumerating the investigatory powers of the Commission and the procedure for their enforcement.

Agency action 2 Scope of section 1

1. Scope of section Plaintiffs in civil rights action under this subchapter were precluded from attacking veterans' preference in view of provision in this section that it should not be construed to repeal or modify federal, state, or local laws creating special rights or preferences for veterans. Bannerman v. Department of Youth Authority, D.C. Cal. 1977, 436 F.Supp. 1273.

2. Agency action While the administrator of the Veterans Administration claimed that this subchapter was inapplicable to his policy of only submitting names of veterans for appointment as members of the Board of Veterans Appeals since this subchapter applies only to agencies and he was acting pursuant to presidential, not agency, policy, the unsettled nature of the claimed presidential directives under which the administrator acted was apparent, and his actions in appointing Board members therefore had to be viewed on the merits as agency action without regard to the so-called presidential policy. Krenzer v. Ford, D.C.D.C. 1977, 429 F. Supp. 499.

§ 2000e-12. Regulations; conformity of regulations with administrative procedure provisions; reliance on interpretations and instructions of Commission

(a) The Commission shall have authority from time to time to issue, amend, or rescind suitable procedural regulations to carry out the provisions of this subchapter. Regulations issued under this section shall be in conformity with the standards and limitations of subchapter II of chapter 5 of Title 5.

(1) be responsible for the annual review and approval of a national and regional equal employment opportunity plan which each department and agency and each appropriate unit referred to in subsection (a) of this section shall submit in order to maintain an affirmative program of equal employment opportunity for all such employees and applicants for employment;

(2) be responsible for the review and evaluation of the operation of all agency equal employment opportunity programs, periodically obtaining and publishing (on at least a semiannual basis) progress reports from each such department, agency, or unit; and

(3) consult with and solicit the recommendations of interested individuals, groups, and organizations relating to equal employment opportunity.

The head of each such department, agency, or unit shall comply with such rules, regulations, orders, and instructions which shall include a provision that an employee or applicant for employment shall be notified of any final action taken on any complaint of discrimination filed by him thereunder. The plan submitted by each department, agency, and unit shall include, but not be limited to—

(1) provision for the establishment of training and education programs designed to provide a maximum opportunity for employees to advance so as to perform at their highest potential;
and

(2) a description of the qualifications in terms of training and experience relating to equal employment opportunity for the principal and operating officials of each such department, agency, or unit responsible for carrying out the equal employment opportunity program and of the allocation of personnel and resources proposed by such department, agency, or unit to carry out its equal employment opportunity program.

With respect to employment in the Library of Congress, authorities granted in this subsection to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission shall be exercised by the Librarian of Congress.
