Dear Senator Boren:

Thank you for your letter of October 3, requesting a NSC Staff point of contact to help in the review and coordination of a sequel report to "Meeting the Espionage Challenge: A Review of United States Counterintelligence and Security Programs," of two years ago.

I am indeed gratified that you wrote to me asking for our help in the preparation of the report. The President has given high priority to this bipartisan and very important concern.

Your point of contact on the NSC Staff is John Lewis, Director of Counterintelligence, in the Intelligence Directorate. He may be reached at 395-4614.

Sincerely,

Colin L. Powell
