3. For your information, attached is a complete list of the proposed new DDA initiatives that received approval for funding at this time.

4. As I have mentioned many times, I believe we are seeing a plateau in Agency growth. The number of New Initiatives approved Agency-wide is a good indicator of the direction we are taking. We must start looking within our Base to accomplish new efforts which we must undertake, including Barcoding. As far as Scattergood-Thorne

25X1

[redacted] we merely submitted them to draw the DDA's attention--I never thought they would go forward. Given the general lack of momentum for secure printing on the part of the rest of the Agency, P&PD will only "nibble" at the subject. All in all, we did pretty well, but there are a number of significant reviews to come.

5. Thanks for all of your efforts in preparing the New Initiatives submissions.
