2. Transmitted to Congressman Sheehan's office some maps on Poland and Russia which the Congressman desired in connection with the Katyn Forest massacre investigation and a television speech he was making.

4. I also talked with Congressman Busbey in connection with STATINTL his similar letter of 25 January, and was subject to the usual torrent of Busbey's comments regarding the pro-Communists in CIA. Despite the torrents, he was perfectly friendly on a personal basis. I informed him, however, that the President's directive regarding release of loyalty information would prevent us from making a copy of the available to him. Mr. Busbey protested that he was not seeking loyalty information, but I contended that the basis of his request
