1. [redacted] SR, telephoned following up on a previous conversation with [redacted] concerning a defector [redacted] who through an intermediary was being introduced to Representative John W. McCormack (D., Mass.). [redacted] has learned that the meeting did take place and McCormack discussed the matter with Representative Francis E. Walter (D., Pa.) who apparently was interested in the case and proposed to introduce today a

3. [redacted] telephoned to say the Director wished to have prepared an opening statement for his next session with the Johnson Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee to include discussion of [redacted]

4. Bob Smart telephoned to advise that the meeting between Representative Paul J. Kilday (D., Tex.) and the DCI would be in the Committee rooms. Also Mr. Smart stated that Mr. Kilday left it entirely open to the Director as to those persons on his staff the DCI wished to bring with him, even indicating that it possibly might be desirable for others to hear the conversation - to hear firsthand the seriousness of this undertaking.

5. Ben Mandel on the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff called and asked for a copy of Khrushchev's speech before the 21st Party Congress. We are sending volume 3 of the FBIS Daily Report Supplement which contains Khrushchev's speech and all other issues of this series.

6. Talked again with Mr. Parma in Congressman Bob Wilson's office (R., Calif.) about [redacted] former employee. Mr. Parma was advised that after a close review [redacted] there was no basis for granting him military credit for service with this Agency in a civilian position. Mr. Parma asked if we would give him a letter to this effect, and they would reply [redacted] accordingly.
