STAT Dear

Thank you very much for your recent letter.

If you should find yourself in Washington, we would very definitely welcome the opportunity to take you up on your kind offer. I am planning to go on a vacation sometime in the next few weeks (date still uncertain), but if I am in town I would like very much to have the "debriefing" in my office, and I would invite appropriate and interested officials to sit in. If I am not here, I can easily have the meeting set up and chaired by someone else.

I think the best way to proceed would be for you to drop me a line, or telephone me, suggesting a specific date and time and I will carry the ball from there. In deciding what representatives of what areas to invite to the meeting, it would be helpful to us to know if there are any other areas, in addition to those mentioned specifically in your letter, which you would want to cover.

With all best wishes,

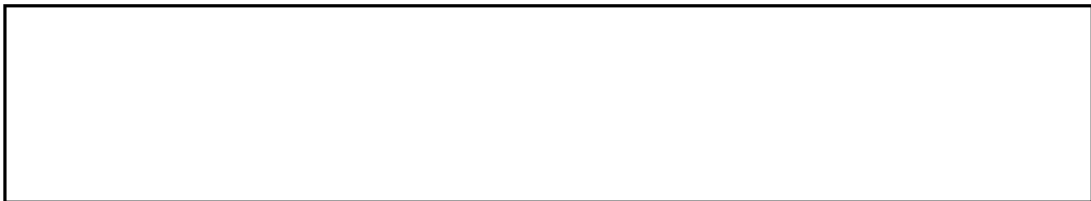

Sincerely,

William B. Macomber, Jr.
