Mandel then referred to an item which appeared in the Washington Daily News yesterday. It involved a column written by a woman named Preuett. In her column, Miss Preuett indicated that a Catholic Youth paper in South America had in its possession a copy of the program of the Communist Party in Venezuela. Mandel suggested

25X1 [redacted] All of the above information was passed on to Colonel King. He will let us know if he wishes to see the Wilson transcript and will check on the Preuett item.

3. Mr. John Keppel of the State Department called and identified himself as a member of the Lodge party accompanying Premier Khrushchev. He was interested in obtaining the assistance of [redacted] the informal remarks of Khrushchev which were recorded during the course of his U.S. visit. It appeared that this call should have been directed to the AD/OO. The matter was turned over to [redacted] who knows Keppel and will follow up on it.
