Dear Mr. Paul:

I understand that this man is presently on directed Administrative leave from whatever position he holds in your Agency and there appears to be some question about his physical ability to perform his duties. I am advised that he is approximately 60 years of age, reasonably well and healthy, with 15 years of satisfactory government service--several of them with your unit, is a veteran and has but two more years to go for retirement benefits.

From my information, it would seem [Redacted] a loyal and industrious worker, deeply appreciative of the privilege of working for your Agency and that he possesses a most earnest desire to continue his association and employment at a time when such are most urgently needed.

STAT

I would, therefore, most deeply appreciate your initiation of a review of his case for the purpose of advising me of his current status and your contemplated action with respect to continuing him in employment, which I hope you will find it possible to do.

Many thanks for your courtesy and best personal wishes.

Sincerely,

Harold D. Donohue
