Dear Mr. Bush:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 25,
as well as a letter from [redacted] dated February 27, 1976.

STAT

If your records indicate that any classified documents provided to the Select Committee on Intelligence are missing, I will certainly do what I can to help you find them.

If you would provide me with a list of the dates on which these documents were provided, the persons to whom they were delivered, and by whom they were received, the letter of transmittal by which the documents were forwarded, and the specific manner in which each document was described in the letter of transmittal, that would be the most useful manner that I know of in which we can proceed and I assure you of my full cooperation.

Yours very truly,

Otis G. Pike

Mr. Otis Pike
Chairman
Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Pike:

Pursuant to the agreement reached between the House Select Committee and CIA regarding boxing and disposition of files, the following boxes were opened, inventoried and resealed in my presence on 21 February 1975:

DoD - Boxes 1 through 10

NSC - Boxes 1 and 2

CIA - Boxes 6, 8, 10 through 14

The contents of CIA boxes 13 and 14 were subsequently consolidated into CIA boxes 1 through 12, and into a HSC/IC box #3.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Hess

Dear Mr. Rhoads:

Pursuant to House Resolution 591, as amended, and in furtherance of an agreement between the House Select Committee on Intelligence, there is transmitted herewith certain material both classified and unclassified, which is the property of the former House Select Committee on Intelligence and is to be kept in your custody in a safe place pending further instructions from the House of Representatives or the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Some of the material enclosed herewith is highly sensitive and I would suggest that all should be given maximum security possible. No one should be permitted access to this material until directed by a further action of the House of Representatives or the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

I appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Yours very truly,

The Honorable George Bush
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

Pursuant to your request and the understanding worked out between your staff and the staff of the House Select Committee on Intelligence, all documents furnished to the Committee on an "on loan" basis have heretofore been returned to the agencies from which received.

All items or materials received from the National Security Council have been returned to the National Security Council. All transcripts of hearings, public and executive, interviews conducted by members of our staff, and all other materials received unsolicited or otherwise generated by the Committee staff will be placed for safekeeping in the National Archives building.

The materials which have been placed for safekeeping in the possession of the Central Intelligence Agency (those materials not received on an "on loan" basis) are placed in your custody with the explicit understanding that they will not be disturbed, that the cartons containing these materials will not be opened nor their contents examined except on further authorization from the House of Representatives or the Speaker of the House.

I believe that the return of all documents or the placing of all materials in safekeeping has been accomplished as expeditiously as possible and I thank you and your staff for your cooperation in the matter.

Yours very truly,

Otis G. Pike
