3 March 1988
FBIS-4409-88

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service
FROM : Chief, London Bureau, FBIS
THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group
SUBJECT : Monthly Report -- London Bureau -- February 1988

I. GENERAL

1. While the dollar made some gains against the pound early in the month in the wake of threatened industrial action in the UK and positive U.S. trade figures, it soon began a gradual slide ending the month at almost $1.78 to the pound. The bureau has tightened its belt another notch.
2. As a followup to the 1987 coordination meeting, the BBCMS general manager has proposed formation of an FBIS-BBC terminology coordination working group chaired by the assistant head of the BBC's Reception Department. FBIS, in agreeing to the proposal, suggested a 6-month trial period after which a final decision will be made on its usefulness. Chief/PMU and the chief editor will represent FBIS on the group, which will hold its first session on 10 March.
3. On the modernization front, BBC has announced that the new automated system will not be available for training purposes until November 1988 or later owing to software development problems. The system, scheduled to be operational by the summer of 1989, is now expected to come on line even later. BBC, bowing to budgetary pressures, is also taking a second look at its renovation/rebuilding planning. A final decision, which may alter plans for the elevator, cafeteria and the club, is expected in 3 months. The impact of this development on timing for the bureau consolidation and renovation is still unknown.

II. OPERATIONS

A. Editorial/Monitorial

1. When serious rioting broke out in Armenia toward the end of the month, BBC picked up some Nicosia coverage to free Nicosia's Persian monitor to cover Yerevan Armenian newscasts. BBC's Armenian monitor, who was on leave and out of contact when the crisis broke, was later dispatched to Nicosia to lend that bureau on-site coverage support. London Bureau and BBC were included in the Wire thanks to Nicosia for its coverage of events.

2. The editorial section continued to be plagued with TASS garbling problems during the month. The garbling is the result of the unannounced installation of a 300-baud TASS circuit and the need for all TASS items to be converted in London to 50 baud for feeds to the BBC. BBC efforts to have British Telecom upgrade its circuit to 300 baud have been unsuccessful to date.
3. The problems with the TASS circuit were particularly noticeable during the 18 February Gorbachev speech to the CPSU plenum. The garbling, combined with erratic behavior on the part of TASS and BBC failure to begin timely processing of the voice version, resulted in consumers not having the fullest version of this important speech until the next day when it was processed by PMU from PRAVDA.
4. PMU had another busy month highlighted by extensive processing from the CPSU plenum, including 21,000 words of Ligachev, 18,000 words of Gorbachev and a complicated resolution on education. Another highlight was PMU monitor [redacted] rapid translation of a 24 February LITERATURNAYA GAZETA article on Khrushchev, which received heavy play in the western press the following day.
5. BBC announced during the month that Chief Russian Monitor Graham Poole will be leaving in early spring for a 6-month rotation at Bush House. This will be a loss for the bureau, since Poole has been very effective in meeting editorial needs.

STAT

B. Coverage

1. PMU has assumed coverage of the Soviet weekly ARGUMENTIY I FACTY, which has recently appeared in pressfax version on the 53E Gorizont satellite. In addition to covering this new source, PMU is also pouching a copy to Analysis Group on a weekly basis.
2. INTERNET: Final details were worked out with the BBC on installation of a BBC-owned and maintained steerable Ku-Band satellite antenna. Once this is installed it will be placed at FBIS' disposal, unless needed by the BBC, for access to West European satellites in the 13E to 8W arc to monitor newscasts for Internet feeds. Based on current data on hand, the bureau should be able to provide Headquarters consumers live feeds of West German ZDF, Italian Rai Uno, Spanish TVE-1 and French Antenne-2 main evening newscasts.

We're keeping fingers crossed.
B

C. Lateral Services

At the request of SHAPE Belgium, PMU filed the text of an interview with Soviet Air Defense Commander Tretyak published in the 21 February MOSCOW NEWS. A 15 February PRAVDA item on UK-FRG-French arms ties was refiled to the American Embassy in Paris at the request of local embassy consumers.

D. Communications

After extensive work to update the lateral services data base, the new 2.0 version of BACH was operational at the bureau effective 17 February.

E. Technical

1. After extensive coordination among the bureau, Headquarters and BTI, the noise problem on the Internet wideband fax circuit was finally resolved on 5 February with the completion of an equipment reconfiguration at Madley. The bureau is continuing to check the circuit periodically and to await word from Headquarters on the start of live pressfax feeds.
2. Bureau engineers, working with the BBC, completed a cable run between the pressfax area and the Internet termination room in preparation for installation of a new phone on the Internet orderwire and connection of the narrow-band fax machine. Bureau engineers also did some preliminary work to install the new orderwire equipment in preparation for the arrival of OTI engineer [redacted] on 1 March. Thanks to bureau engineer [redacted] efforts in getting BBC agreement to allow bureau engineers to lay the necessary cable, hundreds of dollars in outside contract installation fees were saved. STAT
3. In addition to the abovementioned cable runs, substantial progress was made during the month in laying new cable runs from the FBIS autodin room to the BBC apparatus room in the new annex and to the Internet termination room in preparation for the move of the BBC technical plant to the new annex.
4. Despite a busy month with a number of projects, bureau engineer [redacted] was able to carry out modifications to his PMU queueing software to accommodate PMU use of split precedences without mishap. STAT
5. Islamabad: Headquarters engineer [redacted] also had an extremely busy month during his TDY to Islamabad to relieve the unit chief during his 10-28 February R&R travel. Highlights of [redacted] work include rewiring, upgrading the receiver/recorder setup, rectifying a hum on the line, installing a replacement set of receivers and working on the backup generator. BBC has noted considerable improvement in the line quality thanks to [redacted] efforts. STAT

III. ADMINISTRATION

Personnel

1. Bureau editors [redacted] were awarded well-deserved promotions to GS-11 effective 14 February. STAT

2. The bureau has begun interviewing and testing Russian, Czech/Slovak and Polish applicants for monitorial positions at Vienna Bureau.

3. [] Productions came in on time and under budget with an as-yet-untitled classic piece of cinema history on life at London Bureau. The premiere, complete with popcorn, will be on 4 March in the BBC function room. A copy of the videotape along with a BBC film on the Monitoring Service is being forwarded to Chief, Daily Reporting Division.

STAT

IV. VISITS

From the bureau: Senior Wireroom Shift Supervisor [] to Cologne Unit 9-13 February to assist with BACH and PC software problems.

STAT

To Islamabad: Headquarters engineer [] 8 February to 3 March to cover the Unit during [] R&R travel.
