The Honorable Barry Goldwater
Chairman, Select Committee on Intelligence
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for the report of your Committee's oversight activities in the 97th Congress. The breadth and importance of the topics it encompasses are a testimony to our continuing, constructive dialogue that I believe is vital to the Intelligence Community.

The signing of the Intelligence Identities Protection Act of 1982 certainly stands out as one of the year's highlights. Our people saw it as a great sign of support and recognition of their public service, and they greatly appreciated your Committee's unrelenting efforts to bring it into being.

Those who read your report should derive considerable satisfaction from knowing how well the Committee is serving the American people, as well as the organizations and individuals within the Intelligence Community.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

John N. McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
