MEMORANDUM FOR: WAOCC Members

FROM : David Y. McManis
National Intelligence Officer for Warning

SUBJECT : Washington Area Operations/Intelligence
Centers (WAOCC) Conference, 10 Nov 83

1. The WAOCC met [Redacted] on 10 November 1983 and received an outstanding orientation and superb hospitality from our hosts. Special thanks are due to [Redacted]. The agenda is at Attachment 1.

2. The Conference observed the Current Requirements Working Group as it developed special emphasis priorities and gained an appreciation of the community integration in the procedure.

3. During a discussion of near-real-time exploitation and reporting operations, [Redacted] solicited NIO/Warning support and recommendations for the ongoing Indications and Working Group Collection Strategies. As a result, NIO/Warning and NWS staffs are reviewing the collection methodologies, critical problem statements, and targeting selections to ensure warning emphases are consistent with the broadened warning goals described by the DCI. NIO/W will elicit additional support from the National Intelligence Council (NIC) as required.

[Redacted] The goal of the WAOCC is to develop an Operations/Intelligence Community position on a future transmission system and a cost-effective community development program. A Washington Area Imagery Transmission (WAIT) Working Group will be formed and it will be chaired by the COMIREX staff representative, Lt. Col. Symes. Its charter will be to:

a. develop a concept of operations for imagery transmission.

b. define functional requirements.

5. Mr. McManis proposed to host a symposium on Crisis Management to discuss practical operations/intelligence center problems related to information flow and communications. The members agreed on the utility of the idea. NIO/W office will develop three scenarios and a discussion plan and host the one-day symposium [redacted] during the April WAOCC meeting. In addition to the usual participants, representatives from FEMA, FBI, and DOE will be invited to attend the symposium.

6. Reporting on the ongoing WAOCC training initiative, NIO/W proposed an Executive Team Building Seminar, emphasizing individual and group perceptions, group decision making, communications in crisis situations and problem solving. Tentatively the seminar is scheduled for 22, 23, and 24 February 1984. Funding aspects are being worked by NIO/W and nominations for attendance will be solicited in the near future.

7. Mr. McManis also announced his intention to produce a training videotape that orients persons to Washington Area Operations/Intelligence Centers. The need for such a training product has been voiced by WAOCC members, Defense Intelligence College, and Command J-2's and their representatives. Members pledged their support.

8. The next WAOCC meeting will be at 0900 hours on 27 January 84, hosted by Mr. Art Long of the Department of the Treasury. As discussed, FEMA will be invited to become a member of the WAOCC as of the Jan 84 meeting.
