2. The National Warning Staff, an arm of the National Intelligence Officer for Warning, is located within the National Military Intelligence Center and supports the NIO/W in his strategic warning responsibilities by providing reasonable alternative analysis of global and regional developments. While the reports you provide to members of the National Warning Staff are also available to them at the CIA Headquarters, our arrangement with you will be more timely and secure, since we will not have to physically transport time-sensitive material via courier. [redacted]
