THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Office of the Director

1 May 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Human Sources Committee, USIB

FROM : [redacted] National Intelligence
Officer [redacted]

SUBJECT : FOCUS Assessment [redacted]

25X1

I. Reporting Requirements

1. The National Security Council -- and especially the President and the Secretaries of State and Defense -- has high priority requirements for timely and accurate information and interpretive analysis [redacted]. Given the nature of US interests [redacted] this will remain the case in the foreseeable future.

2. In general terms, these requirements can be categorized as follows:

a. Political: Information and interpretive analysis on the maneuvering and intentions of the major political elements (parties, cliques, and personalities) particularly as they relate to US interests. The decision-making process is of special interest.

b. Foreign Policy: Information and interpretive analysis on major developments and trends [redacted] particularly as they relate to [redacted] the US. The identification of possible new decisions and policies while still in the formative stage is of special importance.
