Dear General O'Shaughnessy:

With reference to your letter of 30 August 1989, we will be delighted to have [redacted] brief your senior staff on the Threat to Intelligence Community Automated Information Systems and Networks. Our staffs have been coordinating since receipt of your letter, and the dates they have agreed on are 12 and 13 December 1989.

I share your concern over the significant threat to our ADP systems. If I can be of any further assistance to you in your mission as Commander of the Electronic Security Command, please let me know.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature box]

Edward J. Heinz
Lieutenant General, USAF

Dear General Heinz

HQ ESC has been designated the Air Force Executive Agent for Communications-Computer Systems Security. We take great interest in the progress you have made in defining and responding to the threat posed to our vital communications and computer systems. I understand that your staff, especially [redacted] has done extensive work in the preparation of a series of Computer Security Threat documents. Due to our keen interest in the hostile threat and its impact on meeting mission requirements, I request a member of your staff brief my senior staff on the latest status of the computer security threat.

I look forward to your presentation and appreciate any help you can provide in understanding the multi-disciplined threat to our communications-computer systems. My point of contact is Capt Karry A. Green, NSTS 973-6101, commercial (512) 925-1573.

Very respectfully

GARY W. O'SHAUGHNESSY
Major General, USAF
Commander
