REMARKS

^{the} On sourceline request, there is another publication VOYENNY VESTNIK already on coverage, translated Military Herald. The Soviet's themselves translate ~~in~~ Military Bulletin in this case. Some reference to Novosti should be in the sourceline to distinguish the two, which prod groups says have been confused in the past. The paper itself carries APN in the masthead. I would favor version as I think it is more readily recognizable than APN (prod agrees). However, a purist might prefer to keep strictly to what is in the masthead.
