LOGNOTE -- Chief, Operations Group, 9 May 1985

2. Following from this morning's staff meeting:

- FY '87 budget guidance will be coming along shortly. Not surprisingly it will consider cuts in on-going initiatives, not just new ones, so we may have to weigh some trade-offs to stay within budget ceilings.
- A guy named Geoffry Rickleson has published a book about the U.S. Intelligence Community. It's apparently a pretty poor book but it has lots on FBIS in it. Rodney will get a copy for the Library.
- The domestic transfer allowance (Mobility Incentive Pay) will be increased. Then it will go as high as $6500 per transfer. It also will be computed on size of family; now it's only single or married, no matter how many children there may be.
