92 "south africa today" by aleksandr fedorov: south african official circles consistently accuse ussr of aggression, expansio, in africa; however there is no trace of logic in racists' claims; these are only slanders against ussr as can be seen by facts of ussr's support for idea that african countries can rule themselves and sov support for african states; lastly, similar allegations have been made by u.s. admin, but again this is clock to hide u.s. plans at world domination.
