17 vera lebedeva expressing concern of world's peace-loving circles on imperialists' preparations for nuclear war. refers to recent moscow summit and to concern voiced in summit's final communique. naturally imperialists' preparations threaten both europe and other continents. lebedeva discusses u.s. military presence in persian gulf and indian ocean and nuclear threat there, adding that reagan administration's remarks about limited nuclear war is nothing but propaganda maneuver aimed at misleading uninformed people. lebedeva continues by comparing soviet union's peace-seeking policy in face of imperialists' aggressiveness and refers to soviet union's stance on persian gulf and indian ocean and its call for declaring indian ocean a peace zone. soviet union insists that sovereignty of littoral countries and their status as nonaligned nations be respected. this stance is supported by socialist camp, and it was manifested in moscow summit's communique. in conclusion lebedeva expresses hope that summit's call for efforts to prevent nuclear calamity will be heard in iran too.
