16 "listeners' hour" prepared and read by mikhail sumbatov acknowledging receipt of iranian listeners' letters during past week. (1 min); review of letter from listener rahman, in which he writes about his various activities and how he actively participated in iranian revolution and he confidently says that were it not for a strong neighbor like soviet union revolution could not have succeeded. he writes that iranian people should attach great value to friendship with soviet union. (2 min); another listener says he often thinks what world situation would have been today were it not for gosr. soviet union and other socialist countries, he writes, successfully confront imperialism and other satanic forces. they not only confront these forces, but are trustworthy allies of nations that have risen against imperialism, nations like afghanistan, vietnam, angola, ethiopia and iran. (2 min); listener analyzes world situation and writes it is very clear that u. s. president and his coterie have lost their sense of realism in efforts to ensure their greedy objectives and are pushing world toward nuclear disaster. united states continues to interfere in affairs of others, including iran and afghanistan, and washington's reactionaries wrap their acts up in deceitful allegations on their interest in our peoples and on defending islam. (2 min); answer to listener who asks if u. s. allegations on russianization of non-russians in soviet union are true, disussing how entire soviet population enjoys equal rights.
