DESCRIPTION

(S/CL-1/NOFORN) Establish a new intelligence collection program utilizing parapsychology. Establish an organization to manage the collection program (FY85: 8 Officers, 1 Enlisted, 4 DHUS Civ).

PURPOSE

(S/CL-1/NOFORN) Collect information of intelligence interest using an aspect of parapsychology known as remote viewing as the collection method. (FY 85: Project Manager, Operations Officer, 7 Project Officers, 2 Project Analysts, 2 Clerical Personnel.)

IMPORTANCE

(S/CL-3/NOFORN) Remote viewing enables an individual to collect and report information of intelligence interest without regard to time, location of the target or any efforts to deny the information to the collector. Collection by remote viewing is accomplished with no know risk of detection.

JUSTIFICATION

IMPORTANCE

(S/CL-3/NOFORN) Collection by remote viewing allows penetration of inaccessible targets to collect intelligence. Remote viewing also provides cuing information to enable selective tasking of other intelligence collection systems. Potential targets are:

Tactical and strategic, conventional and nuclear weapons system within their secure locations.

Technical developments concerning armor, anti-armor, and chemical and biological research within their secure locations.

SECRET

Foreign intelligence collection directed against US targets.

(S/CL-1/NOFORN) Establishment of a self sustaining organization provides the following capability:

Continuity in the planning and management of the program.

Identification and recruitment of personnel with the potential to be trained in this collection technique.

Identification of civilian institutions or organizations with the capability to teach this technology to intelligence personnel.

Establishing an in-house training program to supplement civilian training.

Explore new targeting techniques to enhance collection.

Provide preliminary analysis of information collected.

Maintain an awareness of the activities of colleges, universities and other private institutions involved in research or other parapsychological activities.

CURRENT CAPABILITY

(S/CL-1/NOFORN) An ad hoc organization of 6 personnel is utilizing the remote viewing technique against limited targets.

IMPACT IF NOT FUNDED:

(U) Application of this unique collection technique against operational targets will end.
