

MINUTES OF THE MEETING, DOD GRILL FLAME COMMITTEE

1. (U) Place: DIA/DT Conference Room, Pomponio Plaza.
2. (U) Time and Date: 0915 hours, 3 May 1979.
3. (U) Attendees: See enclosure.
4. (U) Dr. Vorona welcomed the CIA representatives to the meeting.
5. (S) Mr. Graff briefed the Committee on the FTD Special Search project, "HAVE STAR," wherein remote viewing (RV) was used. He provided background on the program, information on the protocol developed for this project, and the results.
6. (S) Mr. Kramar reviewed the RV program currently ongoing in AMSAA. Copies of the AMSSA experimental protocol were given to the Committee members with a request that comments be sent to Mr. Kramar.
7. (C) A discussion of the Army Surgeon General Human Use Review Board then followed. The Board concluded that remote viewing is a technology transfer process and therefore not a human use issue.
8. (C) Also brought up for discussion was the ORCON caveat. This will be applied only to RV project viewers and sources.
9. (S) Maj Watt briefed the Committee on INSCOM RV activities, which involved criteria developed for the selection of sources/viewers. ~~The Army Science Board will look at the experiments and evaluate them based on HEW and Army guidelines on human usage.~~
10. (S) Mr. Carter briefed the Committee on efforts at Redstone Arsenal to develop a 12-month program to remotely affect a random process. An oversight committee has been established and a draft protocol developed.
11. (U) Mr. Kramar reiterated the necessity to follow HEW and DoD guidelines for human use.
12. (S) ██████████ reviewed CIA activities in RV. ~~Actions now pending include an analysis of medical data from SRI contract work and the finalization of a report which will provide an assessment of nine laboratories engaged in RV experiments.~~
13. (S) ██████████ plans to send out a proposal to look at enigmas of ██████████ include such problems into the STIC Enigma Panel and invite others of the Community to participate in the program.
