CRV

The site is a rectangular, blocky, plain, gray and white, 3-5 story structure. Associated with the structure is the concept of a large amount of energy. The structure has been fit in between others in a space that is too small.

Also associated with the structure is a man in his fifties, who is tenacious, driven and trusted. He is a bureaucratic accomplisher who will cut corners if necessary. He is involved in planning and implementing. Timetables are important to him. He has been brought in from elsewhere because he will, regardless of all the inherent difficulties, get the job done. He is an "outsider."
