SUMMARY OF INFORMATION

The target is a dark, heavy set, single man with a persuasive personality. His eyes are shaped in such a fashion that they go downward on the sides. He is middle aged and well traveled. German and chinese nationalities are involved. He does high stimulation work wherein he prepares people to handle charters. He makes a lot of money (coins) in crude ways, influencing human production, and is still doing so via connections. He makes this money through criminal action which transpires into further exchanges. Right now, there is a concentrated internal effort to free up these exchanges and cohorts are involved. This man is depicted as bad by the newspapers. He belongs to an internal organization with followers and engages in clandestine enterprises for profit. He is radical and is currently running away. However, people are aware of his personal travel arrangements.
