An important building at the site is several stories, tall, wide, massive, ~~enormous~~, surrounded, landscaped, secluded, confidential, feels "like a headquarter;" contains various categories of people who in general are circumspect, sequestered, + have hidden agendas, + are to some degree amoral; these categories of people include service providers, intermediaries, and couriers, who are the most important. A domestic feel seems to be present.

point for a worldwide network of operatives which it controls very strictly. Operatives collect information on a variety of
